

TWO

HOMILIES

CONCERNING

folia the controverfies of this time.

First written in French, by Ph. Mornay, and now translated into English.

Printed by Joseph Barnes, 1625

T whift vE That Phan Thu Phin them canes be 10,150 se filmente con sen one come with the same and a promise facility CASA SAME Weenincon Fouch of the department of the

To the Reader.

Hou haft bere (gentle Reader) two bomilies ( for fo the anthour himselfe, who soever hee bee ensitlesh them ) written first in French, and now for thine understanding translated inta English. Two bomilies indeed very necessaryin these times, not on ly for the authours countrymen and fuch like, who live among ff ope Papists, but also for us of England, amongst whom it is to be fea red too too many Papifts do lurk, The authour by his writing forms himselfe to be a French-man, & that a true, religious, & zealous. Protestant, a French ma be may be thought to be because he writs in french: as also the same may be gathered out of his second homily wherein in some two or three places be speaketh according to the P.84.6 discipline of the reformed French 134 Chur-

Churches, which have no Bishops over them, and wherein no clergy man bath any temporall intifdi-Hion. A Protestant be is for how would be elfe bane thu writte against the errours of the Romish churchte that a true , religious and zealous one ; for bow coulde bee elfe have written them vvith. fuch earnoftnes , and foundnes of dottrine! The bonulies the felues need not be commeded with thee; they will commend the felues fufficiently if thon wilt but take the paines to read the over advisedly. Farewell,

tr

HVNC AYDITE

Matth. 17. v. 5.

us

OV Christians, that are perplexed in your minds amidst the controversies of this time, hovering betweene the choice of that which is Diuine, & that which is humane, of that which is Authenticall, and that which is Appocryphal, of that which is true and that which feemes to bee true, two only words out of the holy Gospell are able to put you out of doubt, and to cause you to see the difference betweene them. And behold, here

fhe

bei

the

for

in fo

ci

20

be וע ען

0

l

fi

is one of them for you; Hunc an dite, Heare him. Him, and no other. Our Lord Iefus had nowe take apart three of his disciples, Peter, lames, & John, & brought the vp into an high mountain. There had hee beene transfigured before them, his face shining as the Sun, his cloathes being becoe as white as snowe. which in this basenes were as pledges of his future glorie, of that glorie, which hee tooke againe, when it pleased him, and which hee had neuer put away. There were Mofes & Elias feene by his disciples talking withhim Mofes and the Prophets: as in a manner giving up there charge into his hands, his indeed which was the marke and the end, the perfection and accomplishmet both of the law & the Prophets. Here Peter comes in, as it were, in opposition, Mafter it is good for

IC AR

owe

les,

ght

ain.

gu-

hi-

hes

wc.

of

2-nd

ne

m

1 2

ge

10 ćt

5.

t,

3

for us to be here. Being already ravished and drunken with the thew of this glory, & these spirituall delightes. Let vs make here three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and we doubt not, but in this first he reserved a roome for himfelfe and his fellow-difeiples. But as he spake, and knew not, faith both S. Mark and S. Luke, what be faid, God from beauen directed him. Out ofa cloud, that shadowed them, came a voice faying, This is that my beloned sonne, in whome I am wellpleased, Heare him. No longer Moses, no longer Elias: the old things are come to an end; I bring you new tidings, good new tidings. There is here no longer any need of Tabernacles or that wee should passe from one figure to another. She hath from henceforth a place where

Mar.9.v.6 Luc.9.

free may reft. She is to be built on the firme ground. Wilt thou Peter, wil yee, my disciples, one day enioy this glory, and poifeffe eternally that which you haue feene as in a glimpfe, behold here the meanes, the only means, to wit, my welbeloved, your happinesse, and all my delight: But, Heare him, For it is he of whom Moses, the same which you have feene talking with him , which did here come to reder homage voto him for the whole law, told you heretofore very neere two thouland yeares agoe. (See how the Lord fulfilleth his fayings in their due time,) The Lord faid unto mee, I

Deut. 18.

time,) The Lord said ento mee, I will raise them en a Prophet from among st their brethren, like ento thee, and will put my words in his mouth, and hee shall speake ento them all that I shall comand him: And who so ever will not harken

T'nto

Matth . 17.2.5.

buile

thou

s,one poi-

you

be-

only

de-

hich

vith

cto

ore

res

fil-

luc

.,1

m

115 ro

7:

22

entomy words, which hee shall $ Speake in my name, I will require it of him. It is the profit to heare him, and daunger to turne the eare from him. It is he of whom I spake vnto you by Esay my Prophet, Behold my fervant, hee Efay, 42. v is mine elect, I have put my spirit 1. vpon him. And do not stand vpon his lownesse, or his humiliation, in that he will not cause his voice to bee heard in the street, nor will not make much noife. For fo much the rather ought you to harken vnto him; whatfoeuer you fee him to be, yet he shall bring forth judgement in truth. And is not that it which you ought to looke for in thefe daies? Hee Shall not faile nor bee discouraged, til be have fet indge- Verlis ment in the earth: till he have inftrusted the whole world. Finally, it is he of whom Iohn the Baptift, that Elias which you A 4 100-looked for , which you have scene, spake vnto you in these daies: hee being not the worde made flesh, vnto the which you ought at this time to harke, but the voice which cryeth in the wildernesse, the forerunner of this word. Not that light which lighteth every man that commeth into the world, but a lamp that beareth witneffe of that light. This is he of whom I faid, hee that commeth after mee was ph.1.15. better the I:for he was before me. Before me , in as much as hee is the everlasting word. After mee,

V.16 in as much as hee is the word made flesh. Of his fulnesse have at we received, Moses, Elias, all the

V.17 Prophets. For the law was given by Moses; the law that entertained vs with figures, vs euery one bound ouer alfo to finne,& therefore to death; Grace and truth is come unto you by lefus Christ,

H

an 21 m

1

Matth. 17.2.5.

haue

YOU

r of

m

is

d ıl

3

Christ. And againe therefore, Heare him: the rather truly , because no man bath seene God at any time. No man cantell you any thing concerning divine matters, concerning things that appettaine to your falvation, but by him: But the only fonne, more then any other, and after another manner. For as much as he is from everlasting in the bo- Prov s. Same of the father. From euerlafting and before all ages. That eternall wisdome which was with him in the creation of all things, and in the which he took his delight. Shee which cryed for long agoc, Give eare, for the o- Prov 8. v. pening of my lips shal teach thing 6 & 7. that be right, my mouth shalf peak the truth. But at this time condescending to our weaknesse, made bone of your bones speaketh vnto you mouth to mouth And therefore the Lord breaking through the thicke cloude of all thefe precedent witneffes ipake thus vnto vs, (And who will not give heede vnto this voice?) Heare it. Heare him. The Lorde then will have his fonne harkened vnto: lefus our Lord: his wellbeloued fonne, harkened vnto, as being the teacher of faluation , but farther, let vs fee by whom. It is faid, that hee had taken apart, Peter, John, & Iames, the cheefest among the Apostles, for to make them partake of that vision, and by a cofequent of this leffon; & in their persons to much the more all the rest. lames, Cephas, and Iohn, faith S. Paul, counted among the pillers of the Church. Taking the for afoundatio of their doctrine this leffon, this word : lames, & John, those whome Christ himfelfe hath honoured with the name of Sommes of thunder, be-

Gal. 2.9.

oude

effes

who.

this

nne

ord;

t vs

, 80

ar-

· 0-

all

m, hē

ne

80

1-

c

t

.

being able to make a found, nor to thunder , but according to the voice, which hee grueth vnto the. Peter himfelfe, on whofe confession he built his Church; what greater honour could he receive? Bound by his Apostlethip to heare him; to heare him for to teach it vnto others, and not any thing of his owne. Otherwise being subject to this anathema pronounced by God; Whofoever will not harken zinto Deut. my wordes , which bee Shall v.19. speake in my name, I will require it of him. And to harken is to obey; for an Apostle and minister of the Gospell, it is to cause others to obey. An Anathema, which hath fince been doubled and expounded by S. Paul cuen in the cause of S. Peter. Though Gal 1. that we, or an Angell from hea- & 9. ven, preach vnto you otherwise, then that which we havepreached vate , vnto you, let him be accurfed, Anathema. And indeed when the heaue hath ipoke, God through the heauen; all the Angels of heauen what haue they to gainfay? Yea what can they fay? Tou ching Gods matters, to speake after God, after the son of God which was sent and came down expressly to declare them vnto vs? Who can doe this, but the king of pride, and the Angels of darknesse transformed into Angels of light?

You wil say then, let vs heare him: but are you of opinion that wee ought to heare him alone? Yea truly, alone: For it is not without a mystery, that it is noted by the Evangelist, that as the voice was a speaking, lessue was lest alone. Moses and Elias beeing retired and giving him place; how much more al other reachers, all other men? And if it

it

or di

th

m

CC

no

So

ca pe

01 tu

W

to

Pi

m

th

h

w

EC

01

of

7-

H

d

n

0

e

it be forbidden so expressie vpon so high a paine to adde to or diminish from the law given by the ministery of Angels; howe much the rather is it forbidden concerning the Gospell pronounced by the mouth of the Son of God, light of light, the word, the everlasting wildome of the Father, whole doctrine cannot choose but bee perfect, perpetual, eternall? Alone, more over, for who will be fo prefuptuous, as to dare fet hand to his workmanship, and after him to teaches any way of falvation; to prescribe vs any rule thereof: & after him to disclos vnto vs any mistery of Religió, or any thing that might bee expedient for a heavenly life? Lastly, alone, because there was but one Sonne, whom it behoved to fet an end to all the Lawgivers of Iuda: & one Prophet by excellece pointed ted out to Moses, by who God might reveale himselfe to the world & ope vnto vs the depths of his instice and of his mercie. This Christ, faid the Samaritan woman, which when he is come, will tell vs all things. And therefore faith this voice from heaven vnto vs, Hunc andite, pointing him vnto vs as it were with a finger, heare him . Him alone. whom so many former ages, so many heralds have gon before, & haue continually by fuccelfion preached vnto you: if that wee ought to have learned the way of falvation from any other, by what path fo cuer hee brought vs thercunto, to what purpose then neede wee haue come vnto him, vnto him alone without interruption ever fince the beginning of the world? if any one might put in never fo fmal an helping hand with him:

God

to the

epths

ercie.

aritan

come,

here-

hea-

poin-

lone.

s, fo

fore,

ccel-

that

dthe

hee

one

ince

im:

:0

to what end then is it, that the law and the Prophets doe aime at him alone; that Mofes & Elias were swallowed vp in him,& vanished out of fight before him? This furniture of glory, this voice from heaven, Godin his owne person being present at this charge, was al this for to tell vs fome thing either common or communicable to another? Heare him, my well beloved fonne; Him, in whom I am well pleased, but for this time only, but without prejudice to them that shall come after, but with a referuatio of other rules of well beleeuing, and well doing, which shall from time to time be taught vnto you; but if the meaning had bin, that they shoulde haue rested here, was there any need of this folemne transfiguration, of so maiestical a preface? As therefore when S.

lobe

Su

21

fo

fa

cl

fe

b ſ

1

14

John faith vnto vs of lefu; Bebold the Lambe of God; we confider in this Lambe all the typicall and Sacramentall Lambes both ended and accomplished: after this Lambe, we do no longer settle our mindes and hopes vpon any other, that can take away or beare the finnes of the world. In like manner, and that farre more strictly, when God here faith vnto vs, beare him; This lefus, this Chrift, this Emmanuel, God with vs, my well beloued long before promised, at this day exhibited, the teacher of faluation, the author of life ,& that by his death for vs. Let ys thinke, that in this Teacher, in this Lawgiuer al others are accomplished and take an end:let no man presume so far, as to bring his lampe into the Christian church, if he have not lighted it at the beames of this Sunce.

w; Be-

ve con-

e typi-

ambes

lifhed:

olon-

hopes

ntake

of the

that

God

him;

Em-

well

rof

ır,

10 ot

S

Sunne, all humane inventions and rules being fet afide; as before times all strange fire was farre from the Lords Tabernacle, from his altar, from the cenfer, from the Priest, on paine of being deuoured.

A strange conclusion, will fome man here fay vnto vs.preveted by so many positive laws, by fo many new examples, & fo many good rules. We wil there fore let him heare the Fathers. Tertullian; Let vs then bear him, Terrul. L. of whom God bad from the begin- 3. advers. ning declared that he ought to be warcione heard in the name of a Prophet, cap. 13. because that for such an one bee was to bee esteemed among the people. But was he alone fo to be effected? S. Cyprian Tertullians scholler, and which verie likely had learned it from him, faith. That wee ought to heare Christ alone, the father bathre-

cor-

corded it from heave, faying, &c. Cyprad Heare him. Wherfore if we ought Cicil.de to heare Christ alone, then ought facramet. Dom. ca- wee not to minde, what an other licis Ep. Shall thinke fit to bee done before 62.in cdit vs, but what Christ the first of all, Pamelia. which is before all , hath done; bena, eanse also we ought not to followe the customes of men, but the truth of God. And to the same purpole doth hee bring in many places out of the holy Scriptures both before and after. The reason Ambr. de thereofis to be found in S. Am-

Ambr. de thereofis to be found in S. Amfide l. 1. c. brofe. Because that no man commeth to the Father, but by the So,

Chrysoft be it what it will that thou medi-Homal 57 tatest cocerning the Father. And in Matth. likewise thou cast think nothing touching divine matters, but by the Sonne. Wherevon Chrysoft. saith, Heare him in all things. In all, without exception; that from

Hiero in bence forth, faith S. Hierome, we Matt. 6.17 might no more pitch anie taberna cle

cleb

nol

are

duti

tabe

He

WO

arc

der

not

for

tar

rat

10

an

fee

gr

hie

th

61

th

ghe

ghe

all.

be-

we th

le

cs th

on

7-

7-

õ,

1-

d

5

n

B

e

cle but to him, obey none but him, no loger Mofes, nor Elias; they are but fernats; it is no leffe their dutie then ours . to raife him up 4 tabernacle within their hearts. He that spake thus of the , what would he have faide of fuch as are com fince? of all those founders of new orders? vntowhich notwithstanding we erect as well as to Christ, yea in some fort aboue Christ, temples, al tars, and facrifices: and obeythe rather the the law, the Gospell, or the Sonne of God himselfe.

But paffe we this ouer, not to anger the world. Yet truly we fee that thislesson, as being engrauen with the finger of God in their fouls, doth remain deep lie imprinted in all there writings, whereas lames telleth vs; there is one lawginer, which is a- lam.4. 12, ble to saue distroy, who art thou that indgest another man , that takeft

This !

chen

twee

& th

Mol

feen

1425 he g

word

ye d

But

that hov

righ

our

Pro

thi

wh

wb

ba

Th

no

by law (how great so euer thou art) that may binde his confcience, and give or take from him life everlasting. And S. Iohn That which we have seene and beard of that word of life, declare we unto you. we have learned it both for you and for our felfes; shat you might have felloship with vs & that our fellowship might be with the father and with his fon Jefus Chrift. This is the reward of hearing him . Farre different from that which once they alked, to wire, his right had or his left hand here on earth, S. Peter alio alleadging for a reason this fame vision; For we followed not deceanable fables whenwe opened unto you the comming and power of our Lord lefus Christ butwith our eies we fam his Maiestie, when there came fuch a voice to him fent fro that excellent glory,

3.Pet. 1.8

ma

hou

ci-

om

ohn

ınd

are

es

ith

60

OM

rd

nt

C

is

*

15

1

d

This is my beloved fonne &c. & then making a difference betweene the doctrine of the law & that of the Gospell, between Mofes and Elias, which he had feene, and that lefus whome he was comanded to harken vnto: he goeth on thus , We have the word of the prophets, to the which V.91 ye doe well that yee take beed . But as to what? as vnto a light, that shineth in a darke place. and how long? until the day dawne, and the day starre arise in your harts. This lefus the Sonne of righteoufnes, the true light of our foules, of the which all the Prophesies are but litle sparkes; this Iesus, of whom Peter said, when he had knowne him, To whom should we goe? Lord, thou hast the words of everlasting life. Thou hast them, that is to fay, none hath them, but thou, but by thee:thou art the only headfpring

ne

btio

Wou

time tho

had

alu

Isto

the

WO

vnl

wri oft

dome

fpring of them; all others 200 but stinking eisternes. In some par other place perhaps wee might find the words of life, but of a leing temporall life, of a mortall life, ratio of an immortall death. Wordes he be of faluation and happinesse are et vs not found but in lesus onely, which in my lesus alone. And therefore with good reason was it told vs in the mountaine, Heare feen, bim. S. Paul was not at this vifi- ven, on, and yet flickes not to take which the same lesson for himself also ; coul God (faith he) having at fundry

& 2.

times and in divers maners spoke in the old time to our fathers by the Prophets, in these last daies hath spoke unto us by his fon. In these last daies, saith hee, that is to fay, for the last time, and for good reason, fith that by this Ionne the heire (as he addeth) of all things, by whom also hee made she worlds, that euerlasting wif-

16

ne that affifted him, when he on a spared the beavens, when hee Prov. S.v. right exthe compasse upon the deepe. 27. to seing descended neuerthelesse rationsly from heauen, from he bosome of the father, for to-extend the cause also he relateth not which cause also he relateth not need to be a seen to be se ere- into vs these visions and reueas it stions of his, which hee had eare feen, taken up into the third hea. 2. Cor.14 visi- ven,into Paradise, those wordes aker which cannot be spoken. (What lfo , could not he haue told vs, if hee would but have entertained the time with fuch discourses? ) But those things barely, which hee had learned of our Lord, for the Caluation of the Churches, that Is to fay , of the affemblies of the faithfull of all fortes, men, women, children, learned, and vnlearned, vnto which hee did write; I hane (faith hee) received v.13.&1 of the Lord that, which I have de- v.3.

dry

oke

by

ajes .In

tis

for his

)of

ide

ne

line-

m

.pu

rat the

fet '

wh

VIII

lat

fee

ve

m

C

W

ti

t ł

fpring of them; all others 200 but ftinking cifternes. In fone other place perhaps wee might et the find the words of life, but of a sein temporall life, of a mortall life, of an immortall death. Wordes of faluation and happinesse are not found but in lesus onely in my lefus alone. And there fore with good reason was i told vs in the mountaine, Hear bim. S. Paul was not at this vif on, and yet flickes not to tak the same lesson for himself also

& 2.

God (faith he) having at funds times and in divers maners spok in the old time to our fathers i the Prophets, in thefe last dai hath spoke unto us by his fon. these last daies, saith hee, that to fay, for the last time, and f good reason, fith that by th ionne, the heire (as he addeth all things, by whom also heem. she worlds, that euerlasting w do fie are

onely

there

vas i

Hear

vif

tak

alfo

r

ers 200 me that affifted him, when he might the compase vpon the deepe. 27. out of a seing descended neuerthelesse all life, rationsly from heaven, from order the bosome of the father, for tofet vs aright in his waies. For which cause also he relateth not vnto vs these visions and reuelations of his, which hee had feen, taken up into the third hea. 2. Cor. 14. ven,into Paradise, those wordes which cannot be Spoken. (What could not he have told vs, if hee would but have entertained the time with fuch discourses? ) But those things barely, which hee had learned of our Lord, for the saluation of the Churches, that is to fay , of the affemblies of the faithfull of all fortes, men, women, children, learned, and vnlearned, vnto which hee did write; I hane (faith hee) received v.13.&1 of the Lord that, which I have de- v.3. linelivered unto you; I have delive owne

requi

hands

to be

coun

ferue

cord

men

fent

told

word

Bear

I be

Chal

dan

COL

Inn

owne

red unto you that which I recei- owne ved; the Goffell whereby you are Doth Saved, if you keepe in memorie, af- Should ter what manner I preached st , unto you. If you keepe it fill the fame, that I gaue it you, without adding therevnto any thing of your owne. And the rather, because I neither received it of man, nor was I taught it, but by revelation of lefus Christ. Is not that man therefore very arrogant, that dares passe beyond that, within which these great Apostles doe keepe themselues, & bound both their preaching and writings? And after, yea & besides, this well beloued Son, this Sonne in whom the Father is well pleased, to teach and expound vnto vs, what the pleafure of God is , 'and with what fervice he is pleased; and there-vpon to adde somewhat of his 11.

live owne minde , and display his ware Doth not this deferue that God af- fhould fay ynto vs? Who hath ed at required these thinges at your hands? Not to bee allowed, not to bee approved in your accounts? It is in vaine that you ferue me to pleafe men , and according to the inventions of men?Heare him, whome I haue fent you, him of whom I have told you long fince, that whofeever will not harken unto his v.19.8 20 words, I will require at of him. For the Prophet that Shall presume to Beake a word in my name , which I have not commaunded bim to Speake, even the same Prophet hall die, shal incurre everlasting damnation. And here let theie looke to themselues, which against their own knowledge & conscience doe preach vnto the simple people so many things,

the

ithing

er,

of

by

ot

0-

nd

at

s, g

$c

1,

r

•

2

which

94

which they have not heard fro our Lord Iesus Christ, no nor from his Apostles; which are grounded only vpon visions in the aire, vpon pretended reuelations, and certaine tales farre worse then Apocryphall. These notwithstanding are articles of beleefe, more to be beleeved & observed, nay more indeed beleeved and observed, then the worde of Christ and the holy Scriptures.

But it may be that this is spoken to those three onely, those three, which were taken apart by our Lord, & were to learne some particular mystery thereby. But that which is only spokeu to one of them (saith our Lord) is spoken vnto all. The mysteries and the secrets of God are not of the same nature that others are of; They are spoken in the eare, but to bee preached

on

On

ftie

hir

the

po

m: fai

#

Te

60

te

20 frő

nor

are

is in

cuc-

arre

hele

s of

d&

be-

the

oly

PO-

ofe

art

rne

re-

00-

he

od

iat

cn

ed

on

on the house tops. And indeed thou feeft, that S. Paul did not flicke to apply these wordes to himfelfe, and the fathers have told thee that it concernes all the Apostles. And if all the Apostles, then also all their disciples and fucceffors, alt fuch as haue beleeved their word, and have received from them their calling to teach the word, wee may fay, all Christians, all the faithfull , all the sheepe of our great sheepheard. For (faith he) my sheep beare my voice, they un- loh.10. derstand not the voice of a stranger, they flie backe from him. We may fay, the very Catholike & vniverfall Churche For it is faid vnto her, Harken o daughter, & Pf. 45. 10. confider and invine thine ware. And how often bath it bin told vs, that that which is faid to Peter, is faid to all his fucceffours, and to the whole Church? And for for what reason should it not hold herein alfo? Tobec fhort, when our Lord faith vnto his Apostles, Hoc facite, do this , thou drawest from thence a perpetuall institution of a Sacrament, of a facrifice; when God therefore faith here folemnly, Hunc andite, Heare bim; What right haft thou to restrain it to these few. and to some peculiar mystery, to the end that all thinges may be lawfull vnto you? With what face canft thou deny, that thefe words doe containe a lesson, which is to bee continuall and vniuerfall vnto the ende of the world, how to limit the faith and life of a Christian within the compasse of Christ his voice, of Christ his lawe, of Christ his schoole, which is the only Lawginer, the only Mafter and only teacher in his Church?

But there is more in it yet,

for

for t for 1 or a uer fay, con ges, fore hau pini by p reno wil Go tob GOO For hatl tese WO

nio

mig

any

his

dati

ort,

SA-

hou

etu-

t,of

ore

rdi-

naft

ew,

ry,

nay

hat

on.

ind

ith

bin

his of

he

ct,

for this lesson is more necessary for vs, then it was then for them or at any other time whatfoeuer fince his Apostles. For vs, I fay, on whome the last ages are come; for vs, whom fo many ages, & by a confequent fo many forestalled in their judgement, haue prevented by anticipato. piniós, by inucterated cuftoms. by presidents of antiquitie, by renowne and maichie, which wil offer to past stakes with the Godhead, and make themselves to be heard about the some of god, aboue the Father himselfe. For is there almost any age, that hath noe brought forth its own teachers ? Any teacher, that would not have his privat opinions, his owne inuentions? I might fay, herefies. And is there any of them, that hath not built his own stubble on Christs foudation, & fowne his owne tares B 3 in Christs field? And how may al this be remedied? Onely by this word alone , Heare him, heare none other; let euery other voice be suspected by you. Vato him that fearcheth for the truth, doubteth of his way, and feeketh life; he, who is the truth, the way and the life, which also wit seach them, doth of his own accorde offer himfelfe. And where then shall wee feek him? This againe was an eafie matter for his Apostles, which had him at hand . which were dayly in his company, and did as it were draw it out of his breatt. For S. Paul likewise, to whom it was yet graumed to heare him, though in lightning & in thunder. But whither sendest thou vs to heare him ? He which is afceded into heaven, and fitteth at the right had of the Father, will not descend from thence, vntill he

he

An

bec

wa

fof

gin

106 fra

the

Th

the

WC

lef

be

Uir

3 T

WI

ke

gi

nay

by

nim.

y 0-

ou.

the

and

ıth.

dfo

wn

nd

m

ter

in

in

tre

23

m,

n-

VS:

é.

at

Ш

11

c

he comes to judge the worlde: And in the mean time what shall become of our doubtings? Await patiently; our Lord is not so farre from thee as thou imagineft Say not in thy heart, who Rom, 10. Shall ascend into heaven? That is v.67. & 8. to bring Christ from above. Or, who foul descend into the deepel That is to bring Christ agains from the dead. The word is neere theen This is the word of faith. The Gospell which we read by the grace of our God, & which we preach. Ielus Chrift hath not left va Orphans. Hee hath not beene prevented by death, hauing death in his owne power; He is not dead without making a restament, nor gon from earth vp into heaven without a last will. By his Testament he speaketh yet at this day , and did speake in all theages past, and giueth his law to his family. A

B 4

Ba-

Baftardhe is or vnthankful, that doth not heare him It is his oof pell, and his holy Scriptures , in the which he fiveth , and teacheth, and judgeth, and beareth rule in his Church. This Gospel, by whose rule hee directeth the faithfull, correcteth and reproueth the hereticks and vnbeleeuers, and putterh a difference between the one and the other; Of which S. Trepeus tels thee; That Gospell which the Apople! have preached, have they frice gi-ven und delivered unto vi, tradiderent; in the Scriptures by the will of God , to bee the foundation of our faith. Then is it not by occafformonly, or by their owne inflinet, as forme would make ve

August de Beleeue, S. Augustin; All that; content.

evang.l.i. which our Bord would that wee frould have conterning by action and his fayings, he hat he commanded, faith he; to his Apostes to write

itt

de

th

ne

mo Co

L

Ri

eb.

A

fu

F

b

P

2

d

I,that

s cof

es , m

each-

areth

spel.

the

pro-

ence

her;

hee:

PLEJ

25-

edi-

the

Del

rice

79

at:

40

111-

31

write it, as with his owne hands. As if therefore hee had writtten it himfelfe , if wee read it, wee heare himselfe, and S. Corill addeth; Allshat, which they have Cyril.Lia thought to suffice as well for man- in loh c. ners as for doctrine. Will we bee more able then they? S. Iohn al- Ioh, so, ve fo the beloued Disciple of our 31, Lord; Thefe things are written not casually, not by humane in-Rind, but that you might beleene that lefue is that Christ that for of God, and shat in beleeving yee might baue lefe through bisname. And this beleeuing truely presupposeth bearing, according tothe wordes of the Apoftle: Faith is by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. The Golpell hash facceeded the law, but as the truth succeedeth the shadow, and munbood infancie, that the doctrin might be made cleane, and the condition of the B 5 Church

kin

hea

his

let

W

th

th

in

h

K

g

F

1

1

Church amended, God not being content that his lawe had bin written with his owne finger : commaunded alfo that it should bee written in a booke, that they fould look in it , that every boulbold from their first yeares should bee instructed in it. Truly Christ the fon of God, our only lawgiver, hath in like manner prouided for his Gofpell; being to leave this world& so withdraw his voice sogether. with his fleft from vs., bee hath perpetuated it voto vs in his Gospell. He hath given vs Euagelifts & Apoftles, wholevens he hath inspired. In them, & by them, it thou wilt, hee fpeaketh vnto thee , thou needest not climbe vp into a mountaine for it, or enser into a cloud, or be overtaken with feare; thou needest only his bountifulnesse and grace alone of him, I fay, fpeaking in these Euangelists, his heavenly father telleth thee as well now as then; Heare him, ware bim in them. As well as our Lord at every table where his Sacrament is celebrated according to his institution, telleth thee yet throughout the whole world, Hoc facile, Doe this . And communicateth vuto thee on the one part his Spirit in his word, on the other his bo dy, his flesh, and his blood in his holy table. Which allo is the reason, why every one ofthese good ancient fathers in al those conflicts of herefies didin times past betake themselves to this testament, did therein take confaile from the mouth of lefus, as in old time fro God in the Arke and did therehence carie awaie healthfull answers to the peace of their conscience, and the pacification of the Church . Milerable had e finbat it noke, that first ed in God, like Gos, eld& hath his buaby eth

not for oen and can

parti

capn

And

noise

feeke

the c anfw

seek!

long

char

for C

thei

one

the

the top

ver

the

int

nec

YD

Opt S.

me had faid vnto vs, heare Plato, hearken vnto Ariffotle, wee would understand it fo, that he had directed vs to their books, and would goe to buy them at the Stationers: nor would wee any way trouble our feluesto feeke their persons either in Hell or in their feined Elifian fieldes. But when it is faid voto vs, Heare Chrift, we begin to wa uer make as if we were very idiors, bur indeed are malicious, & aske where hee is? Herevpon marke what Opratus faith, that great African Doctour, contefling against the Donatists. Tou Donatifts fay, yea: we Catholiks (ay, Nay In the midft of your year and our nay, mens soules are in doubt. None will beleene you, not. us also; because therefore that we are at ods, we must fecke indies. The Christians, faith he, are the

Opt.Milevit.l.s. contra Parmen,

rar-

ome

rec

at

cc

ta

in

an

to 17

n

.

-

-

parties themselues, the heathen capnot conceiue our mysteries. And therfore can there be found no indgement on earth. Must wee seeke it in heaven? Note here the question, & marke how hee answeres it. But what go wee to feeke for in heave, feeing we have a Testament in the Gospell? So long as the father is prefent, bee chargeth every one of his childre; what they are to do. There is as yet no need of any testament. And fo Christ gave to these Apostles their charge, whileft yet he was on earth . But as an earthly Father feeing himfelfe to be neere the graue maketh his will, for to predent and end all controversies betwixt his children: & then men goe not to feeke him in his tombe, but in this will, wherein he fpeaketh as ifhe lined, and though dumbe yet is vaderstood: fo indeed, Christ, be that hath made the Testamer; is in heaven, but let vs feeke his will in his Gospell, as in his restament For even thefe very things, which some of you do now, bee did enen at that time fee you do them. And as at that time he did forefee them, as being God everlafling, vnto whom all things are knowne from eternity, so without doubt hee hath manifestlie prouided against them; he hath prevented all chances, and anticipated all tricks and cauils. Heare also S. Angustin, Optatus his Country-man, which either had learned it of the other, or was inspired by the same spirit. We are brothren, wby frine wee one with another? Our father deed not without a Testament; he made a mill, and then died; died & rose againe. Men do pleade concerning the succession of the dead, untill the will be brought forth; It being filent hear tentil their lence while cease his t

Ope breit Let the Tej

wit de lee

60

Math. 17. v.5.

mer.

e his

ngs,

e did

-21C

rla

arc

th-

mile.

IN

or

it.

ee

4-

be

4

-

1.

1

37 being brought forth, every one is filens, that is may be opened orehearfed. The Indge barbanesh as tentimely, the Advocates bolde their peace, the Cryers caufe filence, the people frands in suspefe, whileft that the wordes of the deceased are a reading, who heth in his tombe without feeling, and yet his words have their force. Christ is feated in beaven, & fhall he bee August in contradicted in his Taftament? Pial. 21. Open then, and let ve readene are brethre, why are we at variance? Let us appeade our anger: our father bath not left us without a Testament, His Gospels; A Teflament, faith S. Bafil, vnto Bafil de which nothing ought to be ad. Fide. ded. It would be falfe; nay facriledge. The Apofile, faith he, by a worldly example forbiddeth vs expression adde any thing to the boty Scripmre, whe he faith; And norwithstanding no ma rejetteth

the

ex

tif

of

th

fin

W

TTC

m

Air

OU

cla

euc

chia

bu

cee

thi

the

ma

the

the

38 the Testament of a ma, or addeth any thing thereunto, if it bath once beene established. Wherefore we have alwaies knowne, that we must flie from every voice and all meanings, which are beside the doctrin of our Lord. Belide, faith he, and not against. And now in the mouth of these three witnesses, shall not our speech be confirmed vnto you? God will haue it, & hath appointed that his well beloued Son should be heard . Heard here beneath fo long as he converfed here in his owne person: and heard in his holy Gospell, sealed vato vs by his Apostles by the will of the Father, and the commadement been lifted up from this world; Heard, doe you tell vs, in his Gospell? I & you to heare him. Then behoveth it vs to reade. May we do so, without being of the Sonne, fince that he hath

CX-

excommunicated or anathematifed? A book fo dangerous, full of ambuffies, full of mares? How the world is changed, nay euen the very voice of the Church fince the time of these good fathers? That the law of our Lord, which is to decide all our controugrbesshould be esteemed of in these daies as a matter of que Rion; and this Testament which oughtto bring to an agreemet the most contentious brothren, as a bundle of contradictorie claufes. Could this Testament euer haue beene alsered Seeing that we eagree in this, thatit could not, what remaines then, but that this alteration proceeds not from the truth of the thing, but from the malice of the perfore? Thy father hath made a will doth it not concern thee to fee what hee leaseth thee, and under what title; to knowe ddeth bath refore bat we and all de the faith ow in with be will that

th, fo in his in his vs by f the nent hath orld; n his

ade. eing 40

Hunc audite. know also what things he char CH geth thee to doe? Were hee the G greatest stranger in the world, an wouldst thou not be fo curious be as to reade it? Hee that would ec conceale it from thee, yea and pr keepe thee from reading it th coulds thou beloeve be did this sfi without fraud? And being curith ous incuery other thing, will (1 thou be negligent in this? Thou th that feemft to bee a gaicke fellow and woulds becefteemed th of for fuch a one in all thy bufih neffe; wile thou in this beean i-W diot, & leffe then a babe ? Canft h thou doe this without a cont temet to God ? Canft thou doe H this if thou beleevest in Christ, t his Gofpell, and an eternall life? 1

Tell means thy conference, if thou badft lived in the same that our Lord converted here in his flesh, and hadft had the grace to acknowledge him to bee that

Christ

h

2

he char hee the world. curious would ea and PR IF did this g curia wile Thou kerfelsemed bulican i-Canft conou doe Chrift, Il life? ce, if e that in his ceto

that

Christ

Christ that Sonne of the living God; wouldst thou have made any difficultie, or thought it to be any grievous fault, or an execrable deede to heare him preach? Wouldft thou not on the contrary, have gon to feeke after this divine worde, even in the midst of the wildernesse (Whatfoever the Scribes and the Pharifes bad faid voso thee) wouldst not show have had thine attentive care linked to his facred mouth? And behold, when he was to afcend vp into heaven , for to lift you up this ther after him, hee hath fealed the fame voto you in his Scriptures, in his Gospels, which for the greater part are nothing but his Sermons ; his speeches set downe by writing, that thou maiffread them and read them againe more diftin thy & more cleerely, chew and chew them

ı

againe

it

fhe

lav

lec

fyi

Su

as ly

ck

di

th

th

fu

hi

T

A

m

ci

CI

P

15 th

ig

42

againe at your eafe; written expresty by fundry Evangelists, that for thine instruction the one may give light & ferue for an interpreter to the other, And yet shall men make you beleeue that the pen and flile of his Evangelifts and apostles, though ledde by the fame Spirit. , by that Spirit, which was promifed vnto them, was to bring intotheir memory all that mbich he had sold them, hath connected this fauing, this quickeing word. into a dead letter, a murthering and condemning letter; that thou might of abhor it, and flie from it, and cast it into the fire, I'& thy felfe because of it? why then what needed this worde haue bin giuen voto vs in svriting by the will of God, as S. Irenem told vs before, and by the commandement of Christ, as S. Augustin repeated it, but that en ex-

elifts,

the the

ue for

r.And

cleeue

nis E-

ough

romi-

ng in-

ichhe

ected

word.

ering

that d flie

e fire. why

orde

WII-Ire-

y the

25 S.

t that it it might be reade ? And why should it be read lesse, then the law and the Prophets, by al beleeuers .S. Peter called Prophefying a candle, but the Gospel a Sun, a full midday, fuch a lighte as can admit no increase. Truely our Sauiour wrought miracles enough, in the which his divinity appeared both effectually and euidently; And for all this yet fendeth he the lewes to the law & the Prophets. Search Joh. 5. faith he, the Scriptures. And we finde not that they reply vntohim:we are forbidden them, S. Paul also exercising his Apofleship among the lewes commeth into a Synagogue of the citie of Berea; & as he was powerfull in the holy feriptures, hee preached vnto them that lefus is the Christ. What doe then those of Berea? They were not ignoraunt of that so notorious

Vi-

1

1

.

i

1

1

t

t

1

4

F

t

r

b

n

2

C

2

2

A

0

vision which S. Paul faw in the way to Damafeus, they might likewise haue laid a foundation on fuch fignes and miracles, as confirmed his fayings. And nevertheleffe the Euangelift Saint Luke telleth vs, that they received the word with all readine fe, but by what meanes? Searching the Scriptures daily , whether those things were forto wit, as S. Paul had preached vnto them. And this is the reason, why S. Luke telleth vs , that they were more noble men then those, which were at Theffalonicatby this live lie faith, which they with a zeal mixed with knowledge, did draw out of the reading of the holy Scriptures. Whence also it is that hee addeth that many of them beloeved, and of honourable wome which were Greeians. Women therfore at that time were not reproued, but commended

w in the by the Euangelist, by the holie y might Ghost himself, for having read, ndation conferred, and fearched the hocles, as lyScriptures; And that also, that And nethey might judge of the doctrin ift Saint and preaching of S. Paul that ey receiexcellent Apostle. Now what is admeffe, it that the Gospell coulde since earching haue done vnto vs, what cuill whether hath it done to Christendome, it, 25 S. that we should feare or abhorre o them. the reading thereof? Truly whe as S. John telleth vs, thefe things lob so. v. why S. cy were are writte that ye might beleene: fe, which He telleth vs cofequently, that this liue they are written, that yee might th a zeal read them, and read them for to dge, did beleeue them, and therfore they g of the may be understoode of vs, they e also it are not ambiguous, they are fit many of of themselues to perswade, vs, PONTABLE and to make vs beleeve. Whenms.Woas also S. Paule directed his Epi me were files, to the churches of nome, mended of Corinth, of Galatia, of Ephe-

by

fus,

fus, of Philippi, &c?which confifted of al ages, fexes, and conditions; his purpose was not to exclude any one from them, he hath admitted al of vs thereunto:vnto those Epistles notwithstanding, in the which hee treateth most deeplie and profound ly of the deepest and profoundest articles of the Christian faith; and none of vs wil wrong him fo far as to thinke, that his intent was thereby to destroie them, he being so powerful and To zealous in wheir instruction. The like is also to bee thought of S. Peter, and S. Tames, & the other Apostles. But speake wee also of the church in these primitiue times. Of what folly doe we accuse her, which tooke so great a care , to cause the newe testament to be translated intiall languages, that all me might be able to vnderstand it? Into the h connd connotto em, he hercunotwithce treaofound rofounhriftian wrong that his destroie rful and suction. thought s, & the ake wee hele priolly doe ooke fo he newe ted into ic might t? Into the

the Latine, the Syrian, the Arabian, the Egyptian, the Ethiopian, the Perfian, the Indian, the Scythian, the Sauromaticke, & the Gothes language. And for what manner of men shall wee take S. Hierome, and S. Chryfostome, which turned it into the Sclavonian and Armenian tongues, commending fo exprefly the reading thereof vnto all persons? The one of them so nom.3.de farre as to fay, that they are the Lazaro. instruments of every Christian In Ioh. mans trade, that hee ought, and Hom 19. mans trade, that nee ought, and De verbo can no leffe want them, then an Efay Hom artificer the implements of his 2. shop, that he must spare no cost in opere for to buy them, that hee ought Imperf. to haue the alwaies in his had, In Mate, and not referre himselfe either Hom. 2. to Monke or Clergie man; but In Ioh. on the contrary hee ought to Homil 16 preiudice and judge the fermos in Genef. of the Preachers, I and his own 13. 31. too

Hom. 13,

Hom 9 & ad Theff.

too, by reading before hand the same place, which is expounded vnto them: ought also to arme himselfe against the Arrians & all other hereticks , because it shall so happen (saith he, and repeats it at fundry times) then when Antichrift shall bee come with his army of herefies. there shall bee left no other meanes to knowe the truth or true Christianitie by, but onely, tantummodo, by the Scriptures: No more at all by visions, nor by miracles. The reader may find on that same subject many homilies, in the which hee can never bee cloid, almost whole ones together, which wee need not bring in here Origen, S. Ba-Fil,S. Ambrofe, S. Augustine, S. Hierom, fay euery one the fame alfo. When as the men fpake of of the Scriptures quite otherwife at this day; and vie as ma-

Chryfolt, in Opere I mperf Hom 9

ny inhibitions for to remove vs from them, as these good Fathers had exhortations for to bring vs neere them; when as men tell vs, as vnto little chrildre take heed therof, the wolfe is there: can we heare this; and not have caufe to suspect them? And what then is more likely, then to beleeve rather that our Church is much changed, fith that the voice of our teachers is quite different from that of thefe holy Fathers : & that they fet our condlesticke vnder abushel, for feare we should percease thefe deformities & gaps, or feeke after a reformation, or call them into the law, at least to repentance?

Therefore, Hune andite, Heare Iesus our saviour, heare him in his Scriptures. But to make vie of them: Heare him with due reverence: Think with

C 2 your

ny

ndthe

unded

ans &

cause it

and re-

) that

all bee

erefies.

other

ruth or

onely.

ptures:

s, nor

er may

t many

hee can

whole

ee need

Atine, S.

he fame

pake of

other-

your felfe, when you alight ypon this newe Teltament of our Lord, that you enter into the semple of God, into his fanctuarie; that Christ preacheth vnto vs therein, that it is his voice, which is the truth and the way: that it is not for naught, that the Church hath called these Scriptures Canonicall, that is to Say Regular, they being rules directing our faith and our falvation.Enter therefore with invocation of Gods holy name, by the same lesus, requiring of him his holy Spirit, that may inspire you, enlighten you, & gine you an accesse to his mysteries : being void of all passions, & full of holy affections, hungring after falvation, and covetous of his glory. And doubt not, but that feekinghim there, for there he is, he wil be found of thee; & knacking at this dore he will open ght vpofour nto the fanctuth vnto VOICE. c way: , that thefe bat is to ules dir falyabinvome, by g of him inspire ine you ies : be-, & full gring afovetous not but for there fthee; & e will open

pen vnto thee, hee will preuent thee, and draw thee vnto him The Eunuch of the Queene of A&. 8, the Ethiopians, read Esaim the Prophet in his chariot; read him but vnderstood him not. And yet found he there Ielus, whom he scarle fought after; Philip ra ning vnto him, being carried by the Spirit, for to bee his trucheman, his interpreter. Thus is God at hand to those that leek his Son in the Scriptures. Thus also is the Son himlelfe delight ted in being fought after here; and in offering himfelfe to bee foud here in his schoole. Which being rifen and glorified, comming to his disciples at Emmaus, when he might have shewne them his wounds, tokens of his mortality and also of his Godhead, had rather resolue them in their doubts by Mofes & by the Prophets. Did not our harts, faid they, burne within us, while be talked with vs by the way , and whe be opened unto to the Scriptures. Why then simple people & idiots as we are, you will fay, (for I fpeak even voto them alfo) in these Scriptures what are we to do? Thou Christian, that haft the conscience doubtful about the controversies of this time : thou shalt consult with Lefus thy Saujour in this his word on them. In a matter of great doubt thou cofulrest with thine Advocate, & wilt beleeue his writings therin. What wrog then shalt thou do to thy Sauiour , in a matter of thine owne saluation, if thou wilt not heare him, if thou wile not beleeue him? Thou shalt also in reading it see before thee the chiefe points of thy Religion, wherof thou art in doubt; Those, that aboue others are commaunded and

and commended vnto you; of which ether the beliefe is more strictly prescribed vnto thee, or the practife in special vrged vpon thee : for to observe or not to observe those, which are told thee to procure greater finne or greater reward. Thou shalt obferue in these holy Scriptures the words of thy Saujour, & the rules of thy saluation; if there be any mention made of them, and in what manner', if in the same manner, as men teach them vnto thee, as they are celebrated in thy church, though not in name, yet at least in effect. though not in expresse tearmes, yet at leaft in fuch as are equivalet. In briefe, if in the reading of these holy Scriptures thou canst finde out the beliefe, the doctrine, the discipline, the face the vifage, and lineamentes of thine owne church, and of that,

which

, and cripople liay, malat are that fthis with s his ter of with leeue wróg Sauiowne lecue ading chiefe herof , that unded and which is taught, beleeved, and done in thy church. Trucly if thou canst perceive all this, call then thy felfe happy, think that thou art in Paradite, where the voice of Iefus, where his worde is heard. From this church be thou neuer desirous to departe. But fay with the Apostle, who shal separate me fró this church, wherin is felt the lone of Christ? Shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednes, or perill, or sworde? No, neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers. For what greater consolation can there be in this conflict of opinions, then to have peace in his conscience; and in these so dangerous occurrents, the to be affured of his way? Of the true faith warranced by the word of his God, and, by a consequent, of his faluation? But on the co-

trary

, and ucly if s, call k that ere the worde rch be parte. , who hurch, Brift? wift, or naked-To,nei-Ingels, rs.For n can of opie in his o danbe afic true ordof quent, he cótrary

trary, if thou findest nothing therein of the most part of that which men preach vnto thee,& make thee beleeue, and inioine thee to do; if in the inward and in the outward, in the doctrine & in the discipline, thou findest altogither a different voice and different hue; haft not thou the cause to doubte, that thou art straied from the Sheepefolde of thy Saujour, where thou knewest not his voice, but the voice rather of a stranger, in words & doctrines fo strange, that it is now no longer the true temple of God, feeing that it is an other then our Saujour, that caufeth his voice there to found, & hath feafed on the chaire thereof? And what remaineth then. but that with the spouse in the Canticles thou favest vnto him, Shew me o thou whom my foule lo weth, where thou feed of , where Cant 1.6, those thou lyeft at noone: for wby Should 1.35. & I bee as fibee that curneth afide? Shew me thy waies, & Lord, direct me in thy truth, fed me thy hight, let it lead me, let it bring me into thy Tabernacles. Tabernacles in deed in regarde of that statelie building of this temple, wherin I finde my felfeto bee, and of a finall flew, and very contemptible. But be they what they wil yet are they the tabernacles & boothes of that chiefe Shepheard, which I feeke for, whose skins and cords bee will ftretch. out when it shall please him; &c. in the meane time I shall be fure to finde there my Shepheard, I Shall not want. That good Shephearde, which Laieth downe his life for bis Sheepe, and lifteth the all vp cuen the little Lambes, into his befome ; doth wash them in the poole of Siloz, feedeth the to the hand, and nourisheth the

Joh.10.

ruid

rett ghs,

into

s in

erin.

of a mp-

wil

ofe tch.

: 84

fure. t, I

cp-

into

min

the the

VP

vp with himselfe into life everlasting. Whereas in this fained Temple I was fed with nothing but imoake, with winde, with found, with pride, with rumour with luxury; I laide out, as the Prophet faith, my filuer and my labour for that which neither did nourish nor satisfie : in idle Esay. 55. fuffrages, in vaine seruices, and erroneous indeed because vain,

Here againe is another stop. What then? The Religion of Christ, the true one, the only re ligion, doth the not admit of any increase or change? May not men adde therunto some Laws, some articles, some new ceremonies? Learne this my friend, that the true religion, as a man from his first birth , hath all his . members, all his joints, any the least part cannot be taken from it; (thou findeft it fo in thine owne body,) without maiming it; any the noblest, that thou canst imagine, cannot be applied vnto it out of the work, with out disproportion, without deformity, without wronging the whole frame : if any thing be in it more then should be, it is extuberancie, or some vnnaturall flesh that groweth out; because that Religion is not a thing invented by man, but by a divine Law, and the rule of Gods fervice, and of mans faluation; and none other but God can give or enioine it vnto man; because. that his thoughts are aboue the thoughts of man, and are higher then the heavens that are aboue the earth; because that no man knoweth the thinges of a man faue the spirit of a man; not one man of another ma, though they have the same ofspring, & do confift of the fame faculties. and like parts; but every one of lim-

58

fi

P

th

fo

Cor.s.

hou pli-

vith

de-

the

in-

uine

fer-

and

giue aufe

the.

igh-

t no

not.

ugh.

3, 8€

lties.

ie ob

52.

himselfe. And with much more reason then; no man bath known, no man hath ever beene able to know, the things of God but the Spirit of God Who art thou, faith Els. 40 13 the Prophot, that instructest the Spirit of the Lord; or art his confailour to teach him any thing? And hence it is that we fee, all those authours of religions 2mong the heathen, to have bin io childish and ridiculous in their ceremonies; and can we imagine, that, when wee vndertake to adde any thing to that religion, which was ordeined from God by Iefus Chrift, wee should be left fo the they were? can we thinke, that the dirt and dust, and smoke, which we cast vpon it, can any way honor, nay canne it chuse but disfigure or pollute his worke? And neuertheleffe, do not thou think therfore that the Doctours in the church are vnprofitable, or that they are not very profitable, that the church & her members all and euery one of them cannot helpe or grow vp. Truely the right Religion can growe both in it felfe and in thee, hath growne heretofore, and can alwaies goe on in grouth. learne also how shee groweth. She groweth in her felfe, and even in thee alfo, (if thou canft make thine vic of it,) when the old Testament hath taught thee that it behooved the Christ of God to die and rife againe; and the new, that hee hath died indeed, and is rifen againe . And beholde a sufficient clowde of witnesses, of holy martyrs, which many ages ago, by hundreds and thousandes togither have died for the twitnes of this death, of this refurrection; & by their fuffrings and deaths have fubor that stable, mbers m can-Truely growe e, hath can al-But weth. and eu canft nen the ht thee hrift of ne; and ied in-. And wde of artyrs, y hungither ofthis n:& by s haue fub-

Subdued the world vnto him,& knit together vnder the banner of his croffe those which hee hath separated from the world; doft not thou thinke that thefe articles, I beleene that be rofe a gaine from the dead; I beloene the resurrection of the body , are very well perfected by them , well growne, and ftrengthned both in them and in thee, fo far as to beleeve them, and to embrace them even to the death for this faith, feeing that by this faith thou art to live? Behold alfo, the lawe hath told thee , that this Christ should be the fon of god and neverthelesse be borne of a Virgin:and the Gospell, that he is that lefus that fonne of the living God, God of God, &there fore from everlasting as the Father; and that word nevertheles made flesh , conceined in the wombe of the Virgin Mary; God .

God and man, both together. Sundry heretickes, Arius and Nestorius aboue the rest, begin they to call in question tome. his mernity and Godhead; and fome his manhood and mortalitie, and by a confequent the Character of the Saviour of the world; wherevpon the Almightie through his spirit flirreth vp many great doctors fro al quarters, powerful in the Scriptures. which by the fame doe ouercome and convince them, doe. demonstrate with efficacie in: one only person as well the one as the other nature ; both the wills as well the one as the other to be necessarie for our salvation; the one working without prejudice to the other. And that by places well expounded and aswell applied, and by arguments drawne from them, both strong in themselves and ether. is and begin iome. and nortant the ofthe migheth vp quartures, ouerdoe. cie in: e one th the he our falwith-. And anded: by arthem. s and

as

as strongly vrged; so that after many cumbats the field is left to the truth, the victory& glory to the simplicitie, and to that feeming weaknesse of the Gospell. Doft not thou thinke that these articles of our creed, I beleene in Iefus Christ the only for of the Father Almightie our Lord, borne of the virgin Mary, conceined by the holy Ghoft; thele very fame in number, as they vie to speak in the schools, haue bred in thee a new impreshó & in themselves new forces? The like also is to bee thought offo many others, for all that the hereticks doe fet vpon the, which harden and make themfelues ftrong against them; and we by them, as wreftlers againft the skirmish, according as the hereticks do trouble & vex the. Those articles of the fall of man by himself, of his restitution by one one Iesus alone; of the grace of God, offree iustification, for all that Pelagius, Celeftius, & their conforts, either lay battery againft them or vndermine the: stand fast notwithstading, with out once moving thece, where the Mafter-builder placed the, make no breach in the proportion of the building, & stir not from their first conformity, to the which nothing ca be added, but in the manner of a botch, quite contrary to the nature of the first Lawgiuers intent, and to that Lawe, in the which nothing can bee altered without high treason, & from which nothing ca be derogated without facriledge. Heare therevpon, what faith our Vincentim Liri-

Vincent. Lirinen. contra hereticos menfis; ( for in fuch matters I speake not willingly without mine authour ; and fuch an authour as may please thee.) The

M P

in il

Chal

for

to?

art pof

basi

aga

wor

bis:

be t

of h

CHH

luft

ana

the cha

ma

LO

e of

rall

y 2-

ith

ere hé,

-10

not

to ed,

ch,

of

und

10-

out

10-

out

on,

ri-

s I

ut

be

Ca

Canon, faith he, of the Scriptures w perfect, and more then sufficient in it felfe for al things. What the shall it not bee lawfull to put fomewhat of our own there vnto? Timothy, faith hee, thou that art a Doctour of the Church, Depolitum cultodi, keep that which bath beene trusted onto thee, then bast received it of gold, gine it up againe of gold, I will have no lead nor braff or bafe messle from you: God bath hee endowed thee with his spirit, or with learning, then be thon a Bezeleel in his spirituall Tabernacle, in his church, cut and square these pretious stones of his divine doctrine, fet them cunningly in some worke, gine a luster unto them, and a sparkling, and grace. But goe no farther then hee did , presume not to change any thing either in the matter or the forme, which the Lord hath prescribed vnto thee: vnto

ı

60

vnto this Bezeleel God had prescribed of every thing, even to the very badgers skins, and the loopes of the Tabernacle, he had left him nothing to doe after his owne minde. For what ferues then both his and our induftrie? That by thee , faith hee, men may understand that more cleerely which before they beleeved more observely. One and the fame article of faith, more cleer ly, but no newe one , none of thine owne head. That m tenthing that, which thou haft learned, thou maift fay the same things after a new manner, with a new grace or methode, but no new things; nothing, that is not in this rule of holy Scripture; nove (faith he) non nova. And he addeth, that this is not faid vnto Timothie in particular, but to the whole Church to the whole body of those that have any charge been tby | thon Telf wor 7741 liqu whi bet the thos but tru all ma vap wit

Rel

A

bea

to

but

Dep

had

euen

and

icle,

doe

what rima

hec.

1007

clear

the

leet

e of 105-

ear-

ame

vith

not

ire's

dhe

vn-

bole

any

rge

charge therein, because that this Depositum, is a thing which bath beene commanded thee , and thou thy selfe hast not invented; which thou hast received, and thou thy Telfe haft not forged . It is no worke of thine owne wit , but it was taught thee; it is no matter of private v surpation, but of publique graunt. In respect of which laftly, thou oughtest not be the author, but the keeper, not the ordainer , but the follower; thou oughtest not to lead others, but to follow. And to speake truely, what neede is there of all these inventions, and of so many careeres, as we give, vnvaprofitable to our wittes, for to beautifie the Religion, to our owne fanfie? As if, faith hee, it were not an beavenly doctrine, and suffised to have beene once revealed; but an earthly institution, and could

68

could never be perfected but by a continual amendmet, according as menvie to deliberate together of one thing to day, and to morrow of another. After him, which flourished about forme twelue hundred yeares agor, all wearied and tired by the inuentions of his own time, what is there that wee may not now fay? Shall we effecme of it as hesefie, or a luft after schiffne, to call the Church backe againe vnto Christ, vnto his holy word and vnto his holy Scriptures? Therefore, Hunc audite, Heare Isfus, heare him, yeewhich have heard fo many others, and that to your great harme; heare him, and thut your care vneo them, which was too open to humane teachings, and is from hence forth to bee referued for his voice alone. But because that our cares are vncircumcifed, & filled

fi)

th

hi

ar

he

to

fu

21

W

it,

th

fel

m

OF

CI

th

to

lee

tu

ot

tio

VS

be

to

ing

filled with fatte, let vs beseech this everlafting Sonne, that by his foirit he would cleanse them and pearce them even vnto our hearts, and vnto our foules, for to heare and vnderstand our Iefus, and his voice, in his word, and in his doctrine, and that he will graunt, that wee may heare it, to beleeue it with our hearts; that we may beleeve it, to confesse it to faluation; and that we may professe it to the edification of our neighbours and his Church. But above all, because that in his language to heare is to obey, and that truely to beleeue and to doe well, doe naturally follow the one vpon the other:let vs make our fupplication vnto him, that he will give vs the grace, to be of the number of those, which harken vnto his word and keep it; and being consequently built, & laying ding ogend to him, forme now is heie, to gaine word ures?

haue haue that him, hem,

r his that d, &c filled

ing our foundation on that Rocke, which all the waves of the fea can neuer shake, and the gates of hell with all their indeavors can never approach vn to; we may then be affured, that as he hath graunted vs here beneath to bee of the number of his true disciples, so hee will make vs in heauen aboue, ( not ypon this earthly mountaine) partakers of his full glory; because that there we cannot say, as S. Peter did, Let us make here three Tabernacles, as being ranished with the sense of a light shadow of this heauenly glorie; but rather as being both better in our wits, and better instructed and that by himselfe, wee are to heare him, and to depend on his fayings, and to feeke him in his word, wherein hee makes vs to vnderstand him, as being the finisher of the law, and the author of aluation in his Gofpell, yea himselfe being that saluation; that so, when the earthly habitation of this our abode shall come to be destroyed, wee may be carried up into that buil ding and euerlasting house, which was never made with hands, but hath beene prepared by the father for his Disciples. Now to him be all honour and glorie with the Sonne and the holy Ghost for ever and ever, that acs of ad the cir inach vn d, that re beber of e will , (not taine) ; beot fay, te here ng ra-better Arustree are and on him in kes vs light

au-

1

b

D NON

being nd the au72

NON SIC FVIT

MATTH. 19.v.8.

that two onely words out of the Gospell were able to decide the most parte of doubts, that are at this day in Christendome; and wee have already expounded vnto you one of them, Hunc audite, Hear him, that wellbeloued Sonne, that Sonne and Christ of God, in his worde, in his holy Scrintures. Whereby are cutte off all forged articles of faith or of religion, that have no foundation

t

0 ld you onely ofthe ere aide the rte of day in e haue o you Hear Sonne, God, Scrine off I ofredation

21

all in this his worde. Now followeth the fecond; Non fic fuit ab initio: From the beginning it was not fo. Which banisheth out of the Church, and confequently blotteth out in our consciences, whatfoeuer the invention or imitation of man, either in imitation of the Iewes and Pagans, or in loue of their owne fanfies, hath added to those very articles, which are grounded in the holy Scriptures , in fo much that wee have need from time to time to recall them to their first institution, & beginning, it belonging to the fame diuinitie, and being of the fame kind, nature, and confequence, to inuent new 'articles of faith, or to cast the old ones anew, to institute a religion in the whol, or in some parts. Iesus Chrift therefore being asked by the Pharifes, which came to tempt him, whether it be lawfull for a man to put away his wife, antwers them by the law of God; Hane yee not read that hee which made the at the beginning, made them male and female; and would have them twaine to be one flesh? Andlet no man therefore put asunder that , which God hath coupled together. Here was wherewithall to floppe their mouth. But they neuertheleffe reply; Why then did Moses commaund to give a bill of divorcement? This proud nation oppofing Mofes to God, the feruant to the master , the creature to his Creator. But what answereth our Sauiour, which was euen meeknesse and humblenes it selfe, but yet for all that abated nothing from the glory cf the father? Moses because of the bardnesse of your beart bath suffered you to doe fo. A number of things for 1 things have either bin brought anin or toletated in the Church God: vnder this pretenfe; But from which the beginning it was not fo; Such made was not the institution of marrould riage ordained by God, that flefte? great lawginer; to this original e put it is that he calleth them, withhath out any respect of their prescriwas ptions. I fay therefore unto you, I their which was prefent with God, eleffe being coeternall with him, whe comhe made them, when hee coupled them together, when hee ppobleffed them, which knowe his ruant meaning, and the reason of the arc to law, which also will cause it to be followed, who foever shall put vas caway his wife, except it bee for whoredome, and marrie another, tabacommitteeth adulterie. How maory cf ny thinges might the Pharifes ofthe haue to fay hereupon, in a math sufter wherein Moles was touber of ched, that great captaine of hings

D 3.

Gods people, which had fpoke to him face to face, had received the law from his hand, authorifed by fo many miracles? By a prescription of two thousand yeares? By folong a forbearace? And that vnder so many kings, Priests, and Prophets? And yet they fland here at a flay, & yeeld without once cotradicting this fentence; From the beginning it was not fo; In Paradife this was ordered otherwise. If then this hold in a law that concernes on ly civill focietie, howe much more in Ecclesiasticall lawes, which concerne religion, and Gods fervice? the articles of our faith, the faluation of our fouls, and things spirituall? Wherein the naturall man difcerneth nothing , nor the fpiri-tuall man perceiveth ande more, then as far as the Spirit of God guideth him, and being gui-

fe

to

de

fil

Po

VII

w

Th

tin

ag

25 pra

gr

the

ma

be

okć

ucd ori-By a

and

ice?

gs,

yet

eld

this

g it

W25

his

on

uch

cs,

and

our uls,

rc-

er-

irin.e

t of

ing

guided by the spirit of God ca go no farther, then as he keepes hinfelfe to his word; how illuminated foeuer he either bee or feeme to be, he ca adde nothing to Gods work, to his commandement; whatfoe uer he putteth to it, is but imperfect and full of And hence it is that the Politicians do so often rehearse vnto vs, that to the vpholding of the lawes of any commonwealth, it is necessarie that they should be recalled from time to time to their principles; to wit, against all tricks, & fide-stroaks as it were of such as wrest & de praue them. And therefore for:a greater cause was Gods people enioind fo carefully to knowe the law of God and his feruice at their fingers end; that fo, as many men as there were of the, fo many cotrollers there might be in the church, for to keep hir

D 4

ın

in and call her backe againe to her bounds. And therefore was it that Efay cryed fo lowd : To Esy. 8,20 the L.tw and to the Testimony, if they speake not according to this word it is because ther is no light in them. No faluation for this people. The is this a rule, which is to be received for the direction of Gods church, & to containe all whatfocuer concernes the true religion, the whole duty of man towards God, & his owne faluation: and for fuch a one hath it indeede alwaies bin vied, as often as there was in hande any reformation of the Church.

Davidhad established Gods feruice, in the middeft of his people, according to the tepor of his law. And many of his furceffors, either dronken wich the service of false Gods, or neglecting the feruice of the truc it, de In zea it a kea  $D_{\cdot 1}$ go ort alfo the for the cue

WAI yea yet of C be fo not don ofh

Matth. 19. v.8.

cto

was

To

, of

this

ght

this

iich

eti-

07-nc5

du-

his

cha

bin

sin

the

ods

his

por

u:- ich

or

the

ruc

79 true God, had partly corrupted it, and partly fuffered it to go to decay; and now that good king Iofaphat, mooued with a true zeal of God, is about to restore it againe: It is faid, That he wal- 2. Chron. ked in the first waies of his father 17 4.3. va Divid. He flood not vpon that, to the 9. which his father Afa, though a godly Prince, had either done ortolerated, and flood as little also on that , which so many other in all this while had done, for to drawe a president from their example : but turned back cuen vnto David, vnto the first maies of David, vnto his best yeares; and those very best ones yet did he examine by the lawe of God: when it is added, that he fought the God of his father; not that which his father had done, but that which the God of his father had appointed to be done; he walked in his com-

Dis

man

the

ob

dit

Fai

ruj Go

no

cit

all

car

to

had

ho

tha

fer

fall

Ina

Sup

do

hat

mandements, and not according to that which Ifrael had done : he ordered himselfe according to the law, and not after the viuall custome of the church, be tooke away the high places and the grones out of luda, which had bin tolerated amongst them by mest of their best kings. To a young and tender king, this toleration might have served for an excuse. And that his people might also seeke the same waies, he sent Priestes and Leuites, as also some of the chiefe men of his Estate to affist them , That they foould teach shofe of Inda, But how? Having she booke of the law of the Lorde with the, for to recall their faith to this belcefe, their worship to his ordinances, their crooked8: depraued waies, to this fquare, to this rule. And we find not, that in all this circuite, which they 1-

ad c-

if-

he

gh u-

2-eir

n-

ht

nd

ke

he

ift

ch

ng

de

ith

to

te,

ot,

cy

they make, any one doth once object vnto them either the tradition or the authority of the church, or the toleration of the Fathers. So well had every one of them learned & remembred, euen in the middest of that corruption; that there, where the God of their fathers spake, was no place at all to hearken vnto either the Church of Israel, or all their fathers togither.

Likewise Hezekiah when he came to the crowne; he had had to his father king Ahaz, which had broken the vessels of Gods house, and shut vp his temple; that is to say, had cast down his seruice, & built vp altars to the Chronifalse Gods in all the citties of 188.v.24. Indeed of the true Altar, many thousands of salseones, as superstition of its owne nature doth multiply; all this might have beene a great stumbling block

blocke to this young Prince, but yet he goeth on farther. Euen in the first yeare of his raigne, hee openeth the dores and repaires them; and which is more, doeth fend for the Priefts and Leuites those which ought rather to haue preuented him, and commanded them to cast forth the filthines. By filthines he meant all kinds of ftrange feruices. All what was not in the law, that counted he to be strange; & becaufe they might have faid, as we at this day; haue not our fathers lived as wel as thourwhat wilt thou the do? He cutteth the short with this, our fathers have trespassed, and done evill in the eres of the Lord our God, & have 39.4. 6. 7. turned away their faces from him and turned their backs; they baue quenched the lampes of the Temple:What light the can we look for (ecr

fo

th

W th

fo čti

ho

file

th

be

do

de

200 faie

He

Ital

me

but

in

nce

res

cth

tes

to

m-

the

ant

All hat

be-

29 fahat

thã

ano

the

ano im

ane

ma ok

for

for, or what darknes ought not we to expect from them? And therefore did they arise at this word, and gathered their brethren, and being convicted and forrowfull in their hearts fanctified themielues, cleanfed the house of the Lord, & carred the filth therof out vnto the brook; that it might neuer at any time be remembred. And all this was done according to the commadement of the king, as it is faide there? But what is added? By the V.15. word of the Lord : as before was faid of losaphar. And that for to abolish all false worshippings. He beginneth afterwarde to cstablish the true worship, & the maner of their facrifices, by the fame authority, and in the like method, according to the coman dement, faith he, of David, and Vas. Gad, and Nathan. This might Geeme enough to content them, (ceing feeing these were such excellet

Prophets. But doth he flay there and thinketh he therby to have fatisfied them? No, but he takes it yet higher. In the church of God, wherein we must not live after examples or the commandements of men; for the comma-V.25. dement, faith he, was by the hand of the Lord, & by the hand of his Prophets. And wee must not thinke that al this while Hezekinh was attended vpon or affifted by others in that manner, as fo good a worke might haue required. The Priefts, in the verie reformation of these facrifices, are found to be but fewe in number. Those, which have the chiefest charge in the church, are not alwaies the first that do reformeit: for want of them, he was conftrained to fet a worke the Levites; wee in our daies might fay for want of B.fhops,

1.

te

21

fa

en

an

W

ha

ellet

nade

akes

ch of

liue

mannma-

hand

of his

not leze-

affi-

nner, hauc

cve-

crifi-

wein

ie the

urch,

at do

m, lie

vorke

daies

cops,

the

the Priests or Deacons, those which are leffe bounde to prevent and forbid these corruptions. The Levites, faith the holy flory, being found to be, more up V.34835 right in heart for to sanctifie the-Selues, then the Priests, oc: And fo the service of the bouse of the Lord was fet in order. In the like maner doth Hezekiah proceed to the reformation of the facramets; he publisheth a passeover to be kept throughout al Ifrae! and that fuch a passeover, faith the authour of this holy storie, as for a long time before they had not celebrated, after that manner as it is written, to wit, in the law of God. For a long time before, faith he; This might have beene enough to stop all reformation, and if we had lived at that time, weehad bin ready to tell them; haue not our fathers done it on this manner? Are they all dam-

86

V.7.

ned? What need is there then of fuch a change? will we be wifer then they? wifer the the Prietts? wifer then the church it felte? But what then would Hezekiah haue told vs? The fame truly,

2 Chron. that he told them: Ye children of 30. v 6. If raell, turne againe unto the Lord God of Abraham, Islanc, & Iacob. It is no time now to stay still in these Abutes. And he cau fed this to be cried every where throughout the land. Be not yee like your fathers & like your breathren, which tressaffed against the Lorde God of their fathers. What proportion, I pray you, is there betweene that respect, which you owe to your earthly fathers, and that duety, which you own of your fathers also?

There were not wanting, faith he, some men in Ephraim, Manasseh, and Zebulun, that moce

ked

1

C

1

t

1

nen of

wifer

riefts?

felte?

zcki-

truly,

ren of

to the

vac, o

flay

e cau

where ot yes

rbre-

gainst

thers.

ou, is

spect,

arthly

which

od of alio?

faith

moc+

ked

ked them, being now growne old in their filthines; neuertheleffe the greater part submitted themselues:In Iudah especially, with one heart, according to the V.12. word of the Lord . They take away therefore the altars that were in Ierusalem, and all those for incense tooke they away, & they celebrated the passeouer, according to the Law. Some at ligth of the Priests were ashaed, of fanttified the felus, the Levits Supplying the places and the du ty of those that were obstinate againft the. And the like thing the like passeover, was not scene in Ierufalem fince the time of Salomon and of David, for many ages together. And it followeth in the same place, that assoone as the paffcover was finished, by the same commaundement, all the people being inflamed with a new zeale, went out, and brake brake the images, & cut downe the grones, and brake downe the high places and the altars. But behold, they did more yet; at the fame time alfo, ( for it is to be read in the fame verse, the Authour maketh not two narrations of this and that which went before,) he brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses

2. King 18 Went before,) he brake in pieces v.4. the brasen serpent that Moses Numb. 21 had made by the expresse commandement of God, for a prefent remedy against the bitings of those fiery serpents, to him that did looke on it; as a figne of Christ the Son of God, which was to be lifted up on a tree, for a remedy against sin, the biting of that old serpent, to him that would turn the eies of his faith towards him. Because that now indeede, of that present use, which remained no loger, they had made an abuse; of the signe and facrament of Christ which

125

downe downe altars. re yet; or it is fe, the o narwhich pieces Moses coma preitings to him afigne which ee,for bicing m that s faith tnow t vie. , ticy figne

which

1125

was to come, they had made it as the thing it felfe, and had giveil vnto it divine honours; and had laftly converted this fo healthfull an image into an abominable idoll. Wherefore alfo, when he brake it, hee gaue them to vnderstand, that it was but Nehustan, a piece of braffe contemptible in it selfe, & hereafter for ever vnprofitable, I& dagerous too, by reason of that relation which it had vnto Christ, seeing they abused it. And hee was very highly commended for it by the Spirit of God, for having done uprightly in the fight of the Lord, and because he trusted in the God of Israell: for having laid afide al humane confiderations, that hee might retaine or restore the purity of his fervice. And indeede by reason of the conditio of the church wherein wee obterued hir hir to have bin at that time, as alto by reason of the conivence the flacknes and corruption of the Priefts, which then were; it is not to bee doubted, but that -he met with some that contradicted him; & then is it not faid here for naught, that hee trusted in God, to wit, against the murmuring of the people; and, onto those daies the children of Ifraell burned incense to it; alleadging without doubt, a prescriptio of so many yeares, but especially, that this ferpent was instituted by God and erected by Mofes. bimself, But against all this, that antwere which our Savior gaue here to the Pharifies flood him insteeder; Non sie fuit ab initio, From the beginning it was not fo. It was ordained to be a remedy for you against the biting of he serpents in the wildernesse; and now you are no longer in that cafe. Christonno pend poral now this i hono creat felfe him.i brou first r God in ou haue reine cause church for A fervior in fall migh

90

25

nee

of

; it

hat

ra-

aid

Acd

ur-

nto

aell

ing

of

lly,

ted

ofes

hat

auc

nim

tio.

t fo.

edy

he

and

that afe.

For a figne, that on that Christ which was to come, the fonne of the living God, did de pend all your health both temporall and spirituall; and you now have attributed all that to this image, and transferred the honour of the Creatour to the creature, of the ordeiner himfelfe to the thing ordeined by him. And therfore hath he now brought it backe againe to his And I woulde to first nature . God we had not many thinges in our Christian Religio, which haue very great need of the like remedie.

Iosiah likewise is renoumed amongst the kings of Israel, be- 2 Chron. caute hee had reformed the 34. &. 35. church: & that on good grouds for Manasseh had defiled all the fervice thereof, & had brought in falle Gods in steed of the Almightie, and Amon his fon, the father of Iosiah, had not done 2 King.22 much better then he. Iosiah began this reformation, by repairing the ruines of the Temple, whereof he laide the charge on Hilkiah the high Priest. It hap-

King,11

whereof he laide the charge on Hilkiah the high Prieft. It happened fo, that Hilkiah amongst many other old registers, which he fought for, found the booke of the Law in the Temple. You may imagine to what a ffraight the church was brought, when the high Priest himselfe findeth this booke but by a chance. No fooner had he found it, but hee sendethit to Iofish by Shaphan the Secretarie, which read it be fore him; therein hee findeth, that it was a thing of nothing to build vp againe the Temple of God, vnleffe hee also would eftablish againe his service; that it rained not only on the hot fe top, as they fay; but that the infide also was posaned, and the SanAnd now Chi keth teffe Her fort he k mig the whi toge vits da,a least was dispe them to be hee r ferue all th be-ai-

ple.

on

ap-

gft

ich

oke

ou

cht

ica

eth

No

hee

ban

be

th, ing

ple

uld

hat

ı se

in-

the

an-

Sanctuarie filled with Idolatry. And hereupon beginneth hee nowe to detell the finne of the Church: rent his cloathes, taketh counfell with the Propheteffe, and humbleth himfelfe, Here the Priest might have cóforted himfelfe with this : that he knew his leffon by hearte, & might have contented himwith the tradition of the Church ; which neuer faileth, never lieth; but what do'es he? He gathereth together the Priests and the Levits in the house of God; all Iuda, all Ierusalem, from the verie least to the greatest. At that time was it not the fashion to get a dispensation for to read the holy Scriptures ? In the middeft of them all he causeth this booke to bee read : which being read, hee maketh a covenant to obferue it, and bindeth therewith all the people. And after al this, he

94

he putgeth the Temple from all idolattie and superstition, and driveth out al the Priests thereof, hee casteth their vessels into the fire, and breaketh down the highplaces, even those that were in the cities of Iuda, hauing beene tolerated by fo many good kings, & in the which the Priests of the stock of Leui those that had their lawfull calling, did facrifice vnto the true God. And hereupo there might haue beene much to gainelay: what is there wanting to thefe facrifices? Are they not offered to him and by those, to whome and by whom they ought to be offered ? Is this therefore any thing elie , but a defire of noveltie. And put the case, that there is some defect in them, is it not for all that tolerable, ha ving already beene tolerated by so many good kings, by so many ny y not licy once way enc his rule this not Mo to conthit burn ces, fer i thou kell if he of cloons

cord

all

nd

re-

ito

the

hat

ha-

na-

ich

cui

al-

rue

ght

ay:

ele

red

me be

ny

10-

hat

,is

11 -

ted

10

ny

many high Priests, for fo many yeares together ? And is it not in this, that that law of policy is to take place, that a thing once well fetled , though it bee ewill, ought not to bee taken away, but to shun all inconucniences it ought to be left still in his place? And neuertheles our rule makes him not sticke at all this; From the beginning it was Deut. 12 not fo. There shall be a place (faith v.II. Motes) which the Lord shal chuse to canfe his name to dwell there; thither shall you bring all your burns offerings and your facrifices oc. Take beed , that show offer them not in every place that thon feeff, and which thou thinkelt to be fit for thy purpole. As if he faid, for I will not take any of thy pretended supererogations for facrifices or worthipping. I will be worshiped, according to that which I have E COID-commanded thee, and not after thine owne fansie. Because indeed that God, the very reason and cause of all things, hath his end in all what loeuer he ordeinethafor to direct all nations to the facrifice of his onlie fonne alone, hee would have but one temple, one fanctuarie, and one altar, whereas thou doff-darken and confound his meaning, by thine owne inventions, by thy pretended good purpoles, and by fuch a multitude of thine high places and thine altars; every facrifice of thine is a wrog worship. Therefore also is it faid, in that which followes; that he commanded the people to keep the Paffeover. But how?

90

s Kin.c.s; As it is written in the booke of the covenant; according to the word of the Lord delivered by the hand of Moses. He sendeth them to the originall, to the old form

there-

Ith Indiana San of San

of I Go Chi
of c ido
not long
Wh

Wheale peo

ter

וח-

lon

his lei-

to

one

onc

by

thy

and

inc

; cróg

s it

res;

w?

e of 2110

the

MIN

thereof; and indeed it is added, There was no Passeover holden V.11.
like that from the daies of the Indges that indged Israell, nor in all the daies of the kings of Israell and of the kings of Inda; not in Samuels'time, no nor in thetime of Hezekiah himselfe. So necessarie a thing did hee esteems it, to keepe himselfe exactly to the law of the Lord, and to his holy Scriptures.

In the time of the captilitie of Babylon, the Church of God, Gods Ifraell, in the midft of the Chaldeans, those great masters of ceremonies and patrons of al idolatric and superstition, could not possibly have stood out so long without being corrupted. What does then Hidras in this case, when he bringeth back the people into Jerusalem? Howe doth he proceed to set them in order agains? Truely it is said

n

h

to

tl

W

P

Ċ

ir

cl

P

la

to

th

b

re

h

b

fe

P

t k

A

that, as foon as they were come into Ierusalem, leshua the son of lozadak, with his brethren the Priests, and Zerubbabel the Sonne of Salathiel, the captaine of the transmigration, Builded the altar of the God of Ifraell to offer thereon, not according to their owneranty, nor according to that which they might have learned in that medlie of the heathen; but, faith hee , wit is written in the law of Mofes , the man of God. As if it were faid, that they calling to minde the punishment of the fonnes of Aaron, which were confirmed by the fire of the wrath of God, for having offered vnto hima ftrange fire; they reestablish after the same manner the service of God in Ierufalem , as it is written in the booke of Mofes; they are not ashamed to go and learne their lesson therein. And

Efd 3 V.1

ome

fon

hren

the

aine

Ided

ell to

g to

ding

nauc

the

the

faid,

the

s of

med

iod,

ima

af-

vice

11 15

fes;

and

And

yet

yet are wee not to thinke, that they wanted amongst the such men as were of courage, and had in the presumptio enough, to adde somewhat of their own therevnto. Lattly, to apply fomwhat neerer our text to this pur pole; Eldras the reftorer of the Church at that time, was fully informed, how that many of the cheefest of the people, yea & soe Priests also against the expresse law of the Lord , had taken vnto themselues strange wines, of those nations which were forbidden them ; whereupon hee rent his clothes, pluckt of the haire of his heade and of his beard, fell on his knees, and cofessed both his owne and the peoples finnes in the prefece of v.7. God ; from the dries of our fathers, faith he, bane wee beene in a great trefpafe unto this day. The longer that the sinne had

Chap.9.

laffed

lasted, the greater doth hee acknowledge to bee the fault: fo farre was he from taking thereby any right occasion to continue it, but did he stay here only? No, he returned to his principle; Thom hadst forbidden vs to do so,

Levit 18. No, he returned to his principle; Thom hadft forbidden vs to do fo, faith he, by shy fervants the Pro-

Deut.7.3. phets, &c. And now fall wee returne to breake thefe commandements? Shall wee goe on fil, ô Lord, in these abominations? So that being strengthned by the affistance of honest men, & among ft others by Shechaniah the sonne of Ichiel, hee caused the people to fweare & bound them with a newe oath to the keeping of Gods law, that lawe especially, which forbad all thefe incestes; whence entued forthwith the putting away of all their strange wives, and that by the common consent of the people and of the Priests them-

iclucs,

10

fa

Y

n

t

u

V

(

ac.

fo

-315

ntisyle

ple; fo,

ro-

rede-

1,0

s?

by

, &

iah

nd

he

all

ed

of 36

he

tdues, which at the reading of the law were convicted of their faults. This was a hard fentence you will fay, as also an harder execution, to part afunder fo many housholds, and to rent in two the wife from the hulband, the children from the mother, And what became then all this while of Eldras his wildome? Was there no Pope amongst them in those daies, that might have dispensed with them for this? But rather if thou beleevelt the Lord, when he hath spoken, wouldft thou have had him cast Gods people againe into that furnace from whence they were but newly come a and that the wrath of the Lord for dilobedi - Deut 7, ence they are the very wordes of the law should maxhot against them, and destroy them suddenly? So certaine is that maxime in al good divinitie, that wee ought to obey God without looking back; and in a matter of reformation we ought to do nothing by roate, but have alwaies recourse vnto this booke.

103 Non he fuit ab imitio.

Our Lord therefore, which was come in our flesh to reform the Church, doth give vs also the fame rule, a rule indeed pronouced by him in this one cafe; but yet it extendeth it selfe over all whatfoever concernes Gods fervice, and therefore is it herein so much the more to beeput in practife, as this is a matter of greater myfteric and weight. As also we learne the same in Gods law concerning his fervice. So faithhe in another place, where hee instructeth his Disciples: Thinke not that I am come to de-Groy the lam or the Prophets: The reformation of the church hath alwaies bin subject to this flander. I am come to fulfil them, to recall

Match. 5.

oking

refor-

thing

esic-

hich

form

alfo

pro-

cale:

over

ods

cre-

put

r of

t.As

ods

here

les:

The

ath

call

recal the law vnto his right obfervation, to reftore ynto it his due and natural interpretation, and to keepe it from all traditions, inventions, and Pharifaical gloffesi, the which vndera colour of giving light vnto it, doc indeed darken it : infleede ofestablishing it, doe destroy it; inficed of honouring it, doe make a mocke of it. You have hearde that it was faide by them of the old time, your Doctors, & your Fathers, Thou Shalt not kill, for V.11. who focuer killeth shall bee culpable of indgement. For to avoide this judgment they have taught you, that it was enough not to kill at all; likewise it was faide; Thou shalt not commit adulterie. And they have made you beleeue, that you were free from this law, if only you kept your selues from a Sting this fin. Like wise; Thou shalt lone thy neigh- V.43

104

bour and have thine enemie, And in like manner all the other comandements. But I fay unto you I that am the true law giner, that knowe the meaning of the Father, of that eternall Fasher, the creatour of bodies and spirites, which giveth his lawe alike to the one and to the other; That wholoever hateth his brother hath already killed himsy holoever looketh on a woma, to luft after hir, hath already committed adultery with her. And, if io be you do not helpe your greatest enemies, even those which perfecute you, then are you not his children, but the children of hell. Calling them backe in this manner from their Fathers (as we have observed throughout in the Hate of the church of Ifraelt ) to the God of their Fathers; fró the gloffe, to the text; from the letter, to the fpirit, to the

And we and in we the thirty we more him let the line be

be

zh

Ou

N

it

-

c

,

o t

T

t

)

t

f

t

the right purpote of the Lawgiver & to the reason of the law. And this did the Pharifies faie we, to blaspheme the Temple, and to call Mofes in question; in these daies amongst vs men would fay it were, to condemne the Fathers, and to overthrowe the Church . Behold therefore this rule, which our Saujour giveth vs: from thebeginning it was not fo. This was not the will of him that made the Testament: let this rule but bee ftretched out over the building of the church; and then, whatfoever shall be found to bee out of this line, or out of the fquire, let it be censured to be also out of the worke, let it bee condemned to be oattered by the hammer, and to be cut of from the faith & do Strine of the church, LetS. Paul bee an example vnto vs even in shofe first times. For men, in matmatters of religion, can never go on very farre without straying, vnlesse they alwaies take this guide along with them. Eve in his time was the holy supper of the Lord prophaned amongst the Corinthians; in this church of God; by the that mere sandthed in Christ Jesu, and

Cot. 1. fantified in Christ Iesus, and Saints by calling for so hee tearmeth them. But what faith he to them? Everie man, when they flould eate, taketh his owne supper afore, & c. And one is hungry and another is drunken. This is not to eat the Lords Supper. This is not to ecclebrate that holy Sacrament, it is rather to despite his church. Here then is a reme-

V.23 die for it. I have received, faith he of the Lord, that which I also have delivered or taught with Theodor you. And herevy on doth hee reib 1. de hearfe vnto them at large the halfeed whole inflitution of the Lord's

Supper

Supp we fi haue delivy your stian ly. S hee w this w churafter troul whice struc-

fcare whice new vnto or ot he fa time down

latio

down inder after 2

.

-

d

D

Supper, in the fame manner as we finde it in the Gospell; As I haue received it, even so haue I delivered it vnto you; It is now your dutie, if you will be Chriitians, to observe it accordingly. S. Peter alio perceiving that Gelaf. Ci. hee was nowe thortly to leave lic. in Act. this worlde, doth not tell the Conc. Nic churches to the which he wrote after my decease, doe not much trouble your selues about that which you are to do; I will instruct you sufficiently by revelations, and visions; there shall scarce bee one weeke in the which I will not give you fome new Article of faith, or deliuer vnto you some new ceremonie or other. But on the contrarie he faith, Seeing I know that the time is at hand, that I must laie downe shis mytabernacle, I will 14,815. indevour therefore alwaies, that after my departing ye also may be able able to have remebrance of thefe things, that is, of the doctrine of Saluation, which openeth untothe an entrance into the everlafting king dome of Christ lefus. To wit I my felfe beating this doctrine into you fo deepe, whileft I am yet amongst you in this Tabernacle, that, after I shall have left you, you canot forget it. Which alio was the reason, why that great Emperor Constantine in the middeft of all the hard contentions of his time went no where for helpe but thither. There is nothing more unworthy faid he to the Bishoppes of his time, then to wrangle one with another about the controversies of divine matters, feeing that week howe the doctrin of the holy Ghost in writing. And she bookes of the Evangelists and Apostles, togither with the Oracles of the ancient Prophets, doeseach vs evidently

dent.
about fore take very were
W
full
Chu
truc

con can a có time goo lote the Thi dov the ftra mai or l

Gide

dently, what we ought to coclude abon: divine matters, and therefore laying afide all difeord let vs take the decision of all our controversies one of those words, which were inspired by God.

refe

of

she

ing

Nit ine

am

ercft

ch

at

ın ti-

10

r.

by 115

a-

of

ee

f be

j-7-

i-

What then? Is it now behouefull to reduce the Christian Church to this rule? The church trucly hath alwaies fitly beene compared to a ship:and no ship can keep his right way without a copasse to direct it; if at some time it be not looked vpo, how good and skilfull foeuer the Pilot or the Mates of the ship be, we are not to think it ftrange, if free bee much out of the waie. This ship also hath flored vp & downe for many yeares together, and hath run vpon manie ftrange coafts : it were then a marveile, if the were not foiled, or had not gathered on the out fide much moffe, many wormes and:

and shels; & in the infide much corruption, contagion, and all kindes of vermine; or if thee did not leake for a long time already on to many places, where every one bringethhis superfluities,& le aueth his excrements, but no man in all this time hath takenshe beafom in handor fet hand to the Pumpe. It were a miracle indeed if there had bin left any thing entire. And wret, ched me that we are, being our selves full of nastinesse in the midst of all this filth; yet do we cry out blaiphemy, if anie one finell it; and curse him, that will take it away. Shee hath moiled bir anker within the haves, yea and in the mud also and owze, of Iewes, Pagans, Philosophers Peripatetiks, Academikes, be th old and new. Shee hath beene Gaighted with their marchanduc, with their inventions. Fro the the reme fortl and borr Idol cible med ofm the v the o fable ftory for th dred badn ficke (like not e with. we fit

geny,

ftard?

postle

Apol

11

d

1-

-

s,

h

a

n

,

ır

c

c

c

11

d

1

S

h

C

the one, the hath put on the ceremonies, which from henceforthere without any mysterie; and from the others, thee hath borrowed their superstition & Idolatry from the one, by a forcible imitation, the hath confir med the prefumption & merits ofman, contrary to the ende of the whole law and Gospell; fro the others they have received fables for truth, Poefics for hi-Story, Mythology for Divinity: for these tenne or twelve hundred yeares togither, we have had no other trade, no other tra ficke, beeing alwaies mingled, (like vnto the people of Ifraell, not once looking on the lawe) with frange women; & yet dos we finde it strange, that our pro geny, our religió, is become baftard?can.we beleeue , if the Apostles of our Lorde, if all those Apottolicall men, of the nexte

11:

age, should come hither once againe, that they would finde as much as one step of the old difcipline and Christian policie; A mongst vs truly hath now been verified that tale, which goeth about, of him that tooke a prifoner, but was caried away by him himfelfe. We have converted many lews and Pagans vnto Christ; but they have perverted vs: we have baptized them; but they have plunged vs in their filthines: and from henceforth, if we now convert one amongst them, wee make them twife as much the fons of hell.

Come thou then hither, and question with our Lorde lesus Christ, not as a Pharisie to tept him, but as a true Christia with a good conscience to learne of him. Malter, teach me how to pray; I know, that I ought to cal ypon God, but I am told, that I ought ough gels work Is thi with do or trary Haft is Wr willb me th nott lecue ding the S And vnto only ( men: their their And thou reply

doth

: 25

lif-

; A

en

ri-

by

CT-

n-

-15

m; in

e-

a-

m

nd

us

pt

th

of

o

al : I

ht

ought also to call vpon the Angels and Saints, and fet them a work as interceffers vnto thee. Is this lawfull? He will tell thee with out doubt, (for he cannot do otherwise, being neither cótrary to God nor to himselfe,) Haft thou not read, that which is written; Call upon me, and I will beare abee, & show shalt gime me the praise. And knowest thou not that hee, in whom men beleeue, is one only God, according to thy Creed, the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghoft? And howe often is it rehearled vnto thee, that there is but one only Atediator betweene God of men: he alone, that could make their peace with the Father and their propiriation in his blood? And herevpon as thy Pharifies, thou canft not choose but make reply on this manner: why then doth fuch or fuch a father direct vs to this or to that Martyre But he will answere vs againe: For the hardnes of your hart, & out of the weaknesse of theirs, was this fo done. You come but new and fresh from the service of salse Gods; These good men thought then to have gained much, when they had caused you to put the away, & to take the Saints for a change insteede of them; But from the beginning it was not fo. For the space of 4. or s.thousand yeares togither, men spake not of calling vpon any other in the church, but on God alone; the Angels were co versant with the Patriarks:doth any one cal vpon thein? Henoch and Eliah were taken vp into heaven; Noe or his children, &lifba or his other disciples, doe they come vnto them? Offo many Pialmes of David, which are as so many praiers, in al that one obic praie com Fath (tab tog that Sath Lord thon one WOL wea do n out feck of G fron my you plea

truc

tyre

ine:

, &

irs,

but

vice

nen

ned

fed

ake

ede

ing

f4-

er,

non

on

có

oth

och

nto

E-

doe

ffo

ich

hat

di-

diverfity of matter, is there anie one only that hath any other object of his faith, and of his praier, but him alone? And am I come to derogate from his glory, I the beloued Son from the Fathers worship, or rather to establish it, & so much the more to glorifie him? I then tell you that which I long fince tolde to Sathan; Thou halt wor hippe the Lord thy God, and him only shalt Matth. 4. thou ferme. And invocation is one of the chiefe partes of his worship, of his service. Frothe weaknes of some of my servats do not you take al your fregth: out of their wants, doe not you feeke a supply either of the law of God, or of my Gospell: and from my patience by reason of my long forbearance, doe not you make a law, nor thinke to pleade prescription against the true religion and pure worship. That creature, do not part it.

That which the Lorde hath referued vnto himfelfe alone, doe not you turne it away vpon the

Let another come, and saie thus; Master, we are al in doubt amidft al these controversies. Is it lawfull to reverence, to adore the Images of the Saints, of the Virgin Marie, thine owne, that alfo of the holy Trinitie? And he will answere doubtleffe, hee which is come to establish the law and not do destroy it; Hast thou not read what is writte in the law; in that law, which was given by the ministerie of the holy Angels? Thou Shalt not not bow downe to them, neither ferme them. Doeft thou not look

Esod. so. make any grave image; thou shalt for some plainer or more expresse speech? Or is it need, that you should have a gloffe herevpon'There followes therefore

the

the

the

ical

ture

yet !

tor fters

infle

we

fum

YPO!

allt

plain

nou

Sain

ima

kno

thec

fo be

him

WOL

com

fanfi

mak

re-

doc the

faic

ubt . Is

ore the

hat

nd hee

the

last in

vas

the

not alt

ber

ok

erhat

TC-

DIC the

the reaso of it. For saith he, I am the Lord thy God; a mighty & icalous God. And can his nature then be changed now? And yet thou wilt not bee ashamed to reply: why the have our Masters giuć thé voto vs for books infleed of the Gospels? When we guild them, cloth them, perfume them, worship them', call vpon them; is there any thing in all this, wherof God may complaine? To whom doth this honour redounde but to him, his Saints beeing glorified in their images, & he in his Saintes? But know thou ( will be answere thee) that God, as he is a Spirit, To be will have fuch as worthip him in spirit and truth; he wilbe worshipped, as he himselfe hach commanded, and not after the fanfies of men. Know also that an image is a teacher of lies, and Habak, 's, maketh of men beafts, and con- v. 18.

foun-

118

foudeth those that are inclined therevnto; and as for those Mafters that have give you images infleede of Mafters , they did this fince the time that they are become ignorant and careleffe and haue bin difpensed withall for not preaching my Gospell, dumbe Pastors as they were themselves they have give thee these dumbe preachers. But fro the beginning it was not fo, before the law and under the law. for the space of fower thousand yeares, the church of God hath had no images . To have them ornot to haue them , as some particular liverie, did then put a difference betweene the beleever and the infidell, Yea and for eight hundred yeares together, fince the time that by mee grace was come into the world in the betterpart of Europe, in France it selfe , there were none

of

YOU

kno

The

hel

pen

Lo

whi

the

obt

mul this

kon

this

will

holy thou ed

12-

ges

did

Sie

fic

all

ell.

cre

hee

fro

be-

w,

and

ath

em

me

put

be-

and

ge-

mee

orld

, in

one

of them. I therefore fay vnto you. Of the ignorance of your Mafters doe not you make your knowledge; make not your Christianizie of the imitation, and emulation of Paganisme; The word of the Lord standeth fast for ever. That which once he hath ordained, hee never superannuates th nor disabulleth,

Let another proceed, I know Lord, that thou art the Lambe, which takeft away the finnes of the world. But wee are told also of a certaine fire, at our going ont of this world, wherein wee must be purged, and must for all this pay and make even our rekoning; what must I beleeve in. this matter? And therevpon bee will tell thee all that, which the holy Scripture teacheth vs: haft thou not read, what my Propheta fay , That I was women ded for your transgrossions, and Dro-broken for your iniquities, othat the thaftifemet of your peace was opo me God which is al iuftice, all mercy, will be have the fame debt paid twife? Zacharie faith, 13N.1.

EGIS3.7

There shall be a fountaine opened to the house of David, to the Church, for finne, for every vncleaneffe whatfocuer; and I verily am this fountaine, a fountaine that neuer dryeth vppe;to what purpose serves thy fire if this water doe suffice? And that this water is not sufficient, who can fay it without blasphemie. But yet if thou wilt have a fire also, heare what John the Baptiff faith; I baptize thee with wa ter and with fire. Thy spirit indeed with a spirituall fire, euen with mine own fpirit. And here thou wilt reply (forthou art for bidden to yeeld) But S. Augu-Aine, and S. Gregorie doe not they fpeak of a fire, to the which

Matth,

OH 6

CD sh

ad

80

in

C th

C

yo

of

ar PI

of 0

VI th

he

lif

hi

ne

co

lif

ice,

ame

ith,

ned

the

ve-

on-

to

e if

hat

tho

nte.

fire

ap-

WZ

in-

ucn

ere

for

gu-

Ton

ich

vee

wee must goe when wee depart out of this world Doe nor they foy, thre it is not altogether incredibie that there is one, and shat it may be true? And at all adventures hath it not beene a good thing to keepe the foules in fuch aw? For how many faire Churches haue beene founded thereby, how many cloifters, Chappels, and Masses? And will you then have the olde doubes of those men to be vnto you as articles of faith? The fables of Platonikes as truth? The fictios of Poets, as found divinitie? Our Lorde moreover will fay vnto thee. He that beleeveth in the Sonne, hash life everlasting, he is already gon from death to life; hee that beleeueth not in him, the wrath of God remaineth vpon him; hee is already condemned, and shall not see life. Betweene these two where F a canft canst thou finde any place for this Purgatorie? And then will the Sonne of God fay vnto thee againe; Do not stand vpon that which the Doctours tell thee thereof; They could never create it. From the beginning it was wor fo. If it had beene from the beginning, there is no question but the Church of Ifraell would have made vse of it; by so much the more , because that fountaine, for the cleaning of sinne, was not as then opened. And yet for foure thousand yeares together, is there any one word fpoken of it? Amongst formany facrifices, and those of formany fashions; is there any one word fook & of fuch facrifices, as were for the dead or for their finnes? And if it had been created fince that time, would then the Apo-Ales have hidden it from vs? would they have told vs. Blefsod

e for

will

thee

that

cre-

tion

bluc

oun-

nne.

And

arcs

ord

any

ord

CTC

nes?

po-

VS?

lef-Sed

fed are they that die in the Lord, from benceforth they do rest from their cabours. If wee confesse our finnes God is faithfull and inst; The blood of his Son Iefus Christ dotb purge and cleanfe us from all finne. This Purgatorie then is'a ftrange fire in the Church; fuch a one, as quencheth her na turali heate, her confidence in the merit of the Redcemer, And therefore; That which the Lord hath paid and quitted for vs fo dearely, fo fully, the faithfull ma needs not to buy it againe; Let no servant of God therefore sel it him againe., Let another also come, that perhaps hath looked more deepely into it; and say, Master, I knowethat thou half bin made an oblation on the tree of the Crosse, sewiped out, and veterly abolished the bandwriting that was against vs. And neuerthe-

F 3 leffe

124

leffe we are told, that thou are every day offered up, every day factificed in Maffe, and herevpon is all this ftirre: To what opinion therefore shall we stand faft?and hereup o he wil tel thee Haft thou not read, what Elay faith of me ; Ht foule fall ber made an oblation for sime; The foule of the Sonne of God, At what rate the doft thou reckon her?and knowest thou nor that I have given my flesh for the life, and my blood for the remiffion of the fins of the world? In comparison of this price, all your pretended Oblations can amount to nothing. Knowest chousocalfo, that likewise all the other factifices of the Law, are fulfilled and abolished in this one onely? And here, eit er blown vp by tradition, or forestalled by custome, thou wile re. ply; but would then our Fathers for

ou are

revp-

hat o-

Stand thee

Efay

ell ber

The

At

that

the

, all

can

vcft

all

in 104

rc.

or

for fo long time together have made to great account of the Maffe, and all for nothing? Why then, art thou not then, really with thy fiesh and bones, facrificed therein every day? Did not men speake of this oblation, even in the time of good S. Gregorie, not aboue fix hundred yeares after thine incarnation, The ill disposed facilitie of men in accommodating themselves to infidelitie, hath brought in these things; And this carnall wisdome, hath beene found to be but naturall, and is rightly convicted of folly before God. The outward worship of lewes and Gentiles confifted in factifices; and when they have been brought to the Christian faith, they were willing to content them with the word of facrifice taken in a large sense; with this word did they qualifie the chriftian ftian service; their prayers, their Sacraments, their Almes, How farre fafer had it beene, to keep them in their owne proprietie; and to teach them the right end of the old facrifices; that is, their end in my cone only Sacrifice I had also appointed for a facramet of this one facrifice, of my flesh crucified and of my blood fhed for you, That bread which you break, the Commito of my body; that cup which you bloffe, the

Communion of my blood. Thereall communication in fumme of all the bleffings and benefittes, that redound vnto you by this facrifice, and in as much as their devotion did wax cold, inflead of making my people participate of them, they have thought it enough onely to fheweth m. vntothem, they have also taken my cup from them. But I fay vn-

to you, that From the beginning their

How

keep

etic;

end heir

fmy

ood bich

60-

the

eof

tes,

his

neir.

ead

cight

m.

cen-

ng 11

it was not fo. Do but read the Apoffle; Without Sheading of blood Heb 9. v. is no remission of finne. And wife thou therefore for the remission ofthy finnes take vnto thy felfe the place of the Iewespwilt thou once againe fliedde my blood? Read on further that which hee rehearseth vnto thee so often; V.16. Christ bath appeared once to put away sinne by the facrifice of bim felfe, It is not then for nought, that they frewe him so manie times vnto thee? Againe, We are Santtified by the offering of the bo dy of lefin Christ once made With V.14one offering bath bee confectated us for ever, and if for ever, why then doe we begin againe euery day? That therefore, which I have fulfilled at once, effectually, and perfectly, doe not thou secule it of imperfection by reiterating it; doe not darken the truth, nor belie the vertue ther-F: 5

of.

of by the friuolous repre fentations. That which I have given thee for a Sacrament, & thankigiving, of that vnspeakable benefit, do not thou account it as Sacrifice. That which God hath joined, feeing I have joined them, to wit, the facraments in my holy Supper; thou man, under what colour focuer it be. do not separate them,

But laftly, could our Fathers then overfee fo grofly? Thefe. good kings, lofaphat, Hezekiah. Isaisb, those good servantes of God, Hilkiah, Efdras, & others, did never make this questió. Seing they had the booke of the law, and did know, that therein they had the ordinaces of God, they rent their clothes, beate sheir breaftes, confessed both their owne & their fathers fins. before the Congregation; they. exhorted, and by their own example

ī

cntae

giuen

ankt-

cbe-

itas

God

ioin-

man,

it be,

hers

hefe

kiah.

es of

bers,

Se-

fthe

God,

cate

oth

fins.

they.

nple.

ample brought, the whole people to repentance, What therefore, coulde our Saviour ener leaue vs as Orphanes, and his barke without a guide? On the contrary, hath he not left vs a lieuetenat general, a vice-God, this man God on earth? Elfe what becomes of that, Twes Pe trus, Pasce oves mean, Thomars Peter: and, feed my fbeepe. But here our Lord wil answer thee. I am that everlafting word, that was made flesh for thee. The on ly Emmanuell, God with thee; with you, by my Spirit in mine holy word; I am with you untill Matth, 18 the end of the world. As for lieue -. tenants, I have as many, as there: are good Pastors and holy difpeniers of my word and Sacraments here on earth. But as for Generall, or Vice-God, there ought none to be over my state because I am every where prefent, fent, I have no need of any show much so ever the ma be limited to a certaine place, or be he as quick as he will or is able to be. I have said indeede vnto Peter, one of mine Apostles, and vnto one for all. Thou art Peter; on this Rocke will I build my church. On this Rocke, that is, on his co fession; for he had confessed vn-

Matth, 16

on this Rocke, that is, on his co fession; for he had confessed vnto me, Thou are the Christ the son of the living God. And therevpon have you placed vnder an Altar at Rome, the supposed Reliques of Peter, and have called them the confessio of Peter. On this pretended confession have you built S. Peters church. It was not so that this holy Aposside vndershood it, when he told vs. Bever at lively Romes mades.

1. Petal.v. vs, Beyon as linely fromes made as spiritual house. But vpon v hat? truly not vpon this your cofession, but vpon his owne, vpon him that is that living frome, re-

icc-

how

mited heas

to be.

Peter;

d on wrch. his có

d vn-

ift the

hereer an

ed Re

alled

r.On

hape It

Apo-

told

adea

ôfef-

upon.

, re-

icc-

iected by me, and yet the chiefe Corner-stone, elect and precious in Guds eies. I told himalfo, the gates of hel should not prevaile against it; and all the power of Sathan shall be found weake against ir. And you have thereby gathered, that it must be a temporall, puillant, and invincible Empire. But Peter vnderstood farre better this my ftyle & language; Hashat fhall beleene in it in this living Stone, in mee that am the Rocke of Ifrael, fhall never be confouded. I had likewife faid vnto Peter, I will gine thee the keyes of the kingdome of hea- loh.13, ven , what foever show bindeft an earth shall bee bound in heaven. And I gaue them indeede vnto him, & vnto all his fellowes, after my refurrection; to wit, the ministrie of reconciliation by the preaching of the Gospell. And thence you have concluded ded Thou art Peter; Ergo, the Bishop of Rome is the vnivertal Bishop of the world; hee shutteth, and no man openerh, he openeth & no man fautteth, Hee hath in his hands al power both temporall and spiritual, he openeth heaven, be fhutteth hell, & quencheth the fire in Purgatoric, he commandeth the Angels bee keepeth in awe the Divels, he faveth or daneth men, at his owne pleasure; he giueth dispéfations contrary to the lawe of God, and to his Gospell; being not so much in the place of God as against God himselfe. And yet are wee bound to belceue, that God is changed in opinion when he is altered in his. But betweene these two propositions; Thomars Peter, & The Bi-Shop of Rome is Vice-God, nay more chen God, .. What a gulfe is there to be filled? And whence

3

h

d

I

fi

el

6

fp

can it be filled, but fró that bottomleffe deepe? How much bet ter did the holy Apostle underfrand this: Feed my fbeepe, that is with my word. Feed, faith he, you Priefts my fellowes in the Priefthood, the flocke of Christ which is comsted to your charge not as bearing rule over the inbevitance of the Lord, bee they of the Clergie or lay-men, but fa, shat ye may defend the flock. And whe the chiefe fbephear & fhal apparregus batreceine that meorsuprible crowne of glory. And not here on earth a triple crown or kingdome. This therefore was the meaning of the Lord; farre different from thy gloffe, & yet Peter himfelfis the interpreten, And therfore would be haue an fwered thee here, as before. Fri the beginning it was not fo. The first Bishops of Rome, for the space of 300 yeares, under the Hea-

he ohe ohe ohe opehell,& o, the gatoingels pivels, at his difpéiwe of being of God lceue, binion But be Bi-

And

nay ulfe is hence

can

Heathé Emperors, for the most part were all Martyrs,& knewe neuer what this temporal jurifdiction meant . As for the 400. years following, vnder the Chri ftian Emperours, they were huble sernants; they obteined fro them their grants, immunities, and priviledges, and helde as it were from them their chiefe authority to farre were they from once fpeaking of giving the a-ny, or making the their feudasie vaffals, As for the 300, enfuing yeares, they begin to embrace them, to vndermine them, & by tricks & fmooth dealing defeat the one by an other; do at the length fer themselves in their place; they feaze vpon their dwellings, they put on their fcarlet, inueft themselue with their crowne, fer footing vpon their Empire, bewirch cheir fub icctes, and with their feete they fpurne

f

le th

Ь

g

i

01

6 le

tł n

m ch

m

n

W

bi

h

th

h

h

C

fourne at their owne persons. A long time after, and, as it were, through a long wood, come in by degrees the Iubilies, Indulgences, & Faires or Markets of fin, the bankes of Pardons : the Agnus Dei, the hallowd graines & every day some new bables or others. In so much that for these 600. yeares and more, the most learned & flourishing yeares of the Christian church, she could not looke to deepely into thefe myfteries, as to vnderftand (eve the Romish church it selfe, as much Latin as the was) the vertue & force of thefe two Latin words; ecce duo glady, Beholde bere two fwords. (What likeliehood is there is it?) Therfore he that vieth them with both his handes at this day, though hee have no other Mission, no other Commission, yet shalbe vnto vs a Vice-God? And what elfe can he

their their with wpon

noft:

newc

iurii-

e 400. c Chri

re hū-

ed fró

nities,

e as it

fe au-

thê

udarie riving

brace

& by defeat

arthe

their

ethey

purne

Non fic fuit ab initio.

he be, being he wil have himfelf to be fo , & calleth himfelfe for ifhe be it not?

Thus therefore by this one word; Non fic fuit ab initio, from the beginning u was not fo, docth our Lord here call vs backe to's reformatió of the abufes of the church, in all hir partes, according to his first institution', according to his word . And let thefe few pointes ferue vitto vs for feantlings; as one beame of the Sunne; one drop of the Sea. You may after the like manner run over all the reft. And would to God that in good time wee had practifed this rule in Chri-Rendome; how many contentions, schismes, wars, massacres, & cofusions, mighe we the haue spared & avoided? of the hich we'are culpable, and hereafter must give account. Whereas at the fighes & groanes of fo ma-

I

f

h

Ė

f

le

t

I

.

ti

fr

rè

ta

20 pe

th

OU

an

mfelf ny greate and holy persons, throughout all Christendome, fefo. for fo many ages togither, wee CAPPE ? haue out of pure pride only anone from fwered them with this, It was locth impossible the church should erre shee cannot erre. What conscic to's ofthe ence was there in this? And had not they the cause enough tobe ccorleeue, that this was the voice of , acthat woman in the Apocalypie, ndlet I am a sucene, and fall never be LOYS me of a widdow? Say we therfore with the Prophet, Wee have departed Dang. v. 5 e Sea. fro thy precepts & from thy indee anner ments. Our Kings, our Priefts, vould our fathers, all our people; & let e wee vs not stand any longer po our Chritentireputation, or thinke to mainetaine our credit. Vnso thee belo- V.7. acres, haue geth righteousnes and unto us othich pen shame, Vnto thee, ô Lord be eafter the glory of our repentance, of our confession, of our confuhó. reas at

o ma-

ny

and of our shame; to the edification

Non fle fuit ab initio.

tion of thy church, and the falyatio of our own fouls, through lefus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Seli Dee gleria.

Errata

P. Ag. 18 lin. 4. for ginest read gine. p.
31.1. win for cleane v. cleate. p. 42.1.31 for connected v. con verted. p. 52.1.22. for feev feet p. 58.1.7. for extuberancie,
v. an excuberancie p. 62.1.4 for they v. then. p. 67.1.19 for vnprofitable v. vnprofitably 1.21 for to our v. and to our
v. 68.1.8 for all v. already. p. 87. lin. 6 for table v. acode p. 93.1.4 for teatr. tents.

REPRODUCED FROM THE COPY IN THE

e fal-

intel

ine.s.

ncie, ncie, ncy r.

o oue

HENRY E. HUNTINGTON LIBRARY

FOR REFERENCE ONLY. NOT FOR REPRODUCTION